INTRODUCTION

The ministry of angels has been in existence ever since God created the world. When man was made, the psalmist says, he was made a little lower than the angels (Ps. 8:5). That means angels occupy a higher realm of being in term of strength, intelligence, vigour, power and might, than man. The wonderful news is that their higher realm of operation is for the liberty and comfort of the saints!

Are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth to minister for them who shall be heirs of salvation?

Hebrews 1:14

Angels are sent to minister to the saints. Indeed there is something principally missing until the angelic dimension of our redemption is brought to light. There are areas a Christian will never cross into until this dimension is in place and one of the most pronounced ministries of these end-times will be that of angels.

Just as all the other benefits God has for the Church are packaged in mysteries, angelic intervention is also packaged as one of the most sophisticated mysteries of life. Until such mysteries are unfolded, the Church cannot utilize or enjoy them.

Divine health for instance, has always been available, yet everyone was walking naturally in sickness and enjoying it. Prosperity has always been for the Church, but there was no poorer society than Christians, until the light of God's Word concerning the redemptive provision of health and riches came to the Church.

The ministry of angels is available and the Holy Spirit is given to us so that we may know the things which are freely given to us by God. Until we know that they are given to us, and what exactly has been given to us, we cannot experience the benefit of their being given, neither can we fully reign, because in the kingdom of God to which we belong, we reign by knowledge.

Who then are angels? Why are they so relevant to Christian life? What exactly do they do? How can we experience them? What turns them on in our favour?

As answers are provided to these questions, the mystery behind angelic intervention will unfold.

It is my prayer that as we examine this mysterious ministry, the scales in your eyes will fall off, so that you may see the reality of their presence and put them to work.

Chapter One - WHO ARE ANGELS?

The angels of God are also referred to in the scriptures as the hosts of heaven or the heavenly hosts. They are real personalities. They are not ideas or mythical figures. Angels are spiritual personalities with physical impact.

Like the demonic world is invisible, the angelic world is also invisible. Angels cannot be seen, yet they are all around us. Their physical impact is undeniable. Although you cannot see them, there is nothing the angels of God do not see. You cannot touch them, yet they touch people. You cannot handle them, yet they destroy kings. The Lord assigned just one angel to go ahead of Moses to Egypt, and he alone tortured a whole nation.

The angels of God are invincible. This aspect marks the point of departure between angels and demons. Only the hosts of heaven excel in strength (Ps. 103:20)

There was war in heaven once upon a time. Michael and his angels fought against Satan and his fallen angels. God use His serving men to confront Satan retired and ill-equipped army. Satan could not prevail and there was no more place found for him in heaven (Rev. 12:7-9).

In any conflict, the angels always win in the absolute, flushing out the opposition completely. Angels have never been known to fail. There is nothing that can rise up against you that matches the strength. They constitute the most efficient body guards of the saints.

Apart from excelling in physical strength, the angels also excel in intellect. The widow of Tekoah in describing King David's wisdom, likens to that of angels:

... and my lord [is] wise, according to the wisdom of an angel of God, to know all [things] that [are] in the earth.

2 Samuel 14:20

In his writings, Lester Sumrall said very stoutly, “we need to establish the idiomatic expression, ‘as smart as an angel’, to acknowledge the wisdom and intellect of angels.”

What is the relevance of these invisible, invincible, excellent beings? Do we need them as latter day Christians filled with the Holy Ghost anointing?

THE RELEVANCE OF ANGELS

A look at the lives of the men exploits in the Bible reveals that they all enjoyed angelic companionship.

An angel appeared to Moses and spoke to him. An angel appeared to Gideon and said he had come to finish the battle for him. Abraham also encountered an angel, who paved the way for the realization of his destiny. Lot was safely led out of Sodom by an angel, just before the city was destroyed. Daniel excelled in strength and operated the wisdom of angels because he had such sweet fellowship with them.

Remember Peter who was locked up in prison? He was freed and left to safety by an angel. Recall also the man John, Who saw what was impossible for natural eyes to see. He said an angel showed them to him – the entire book of Revelation.

There is almost no man is worth in scriptures who did not have a physical, tangible evidence of angelic companionship. God has said:

“For I [am] the LORD, I change not; therefore ye sons of Jacob are not consumed.”

Malachi 3:6

It follows that what he did yesterday, he is also doing today. All through the scriptures, there are a total of about 300 references to angelic appearances and angelic operations. The New Testament contains 165 of this number and the book of Revelation alone contains 65 references.

Friend, there is a lot loaded for this era we live in. Angels are an essential and relevant part of God's package for the redeemed.

The anointing cannot replace the services of angels. Jesus Christ was born of the Holy Ghost and He had the Holy Ghost anointing (without measure), yet He needed the services of angels.

I am glad to let you know that Jesus believed in angels and he enjoyed their ministry, even as the Son of the Most High God. He knew no sin, yet he needed the services of angels even before His birth.

An angel announced His coming:

“And the angel said unto her, Fear not, Mary: for thou hast found favour with God.

And, behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a son, and shalt call his name JESUS.”

Luke 1:30-31

When He was born, a mighty host of angels came amongst the shepherds and declared His arrival (Lk. 2:8-14). When danger loomed because of the news of His birth, an angel told Joseph to move to Egypt with the baby Jesus, that the scripture may be fulfilled (Matt. 2:13-15).

After the devil left Jesus on the mountain of temptation, angels came and ministered to Him (Matt. 4:11). Angels were there with Jesus in the garden of Gethsemane (Matt. 26:53-54).

One of the most pronounced events are at resurrection was the angelic operation that rolled the stone away:

“And, behold, there was a great earthquake: for the angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled back the stone from the door, and sat upon it”.

Matthew 28:2

That stone was placed there permanently by the enemies. There was no thought of it ever being moved. I cannot tell what type of equipment was used in placing the stone there, but an angel came and rolled it away. Two angels were latter seen at the head and foot where Jesus was laid (Jn. 20:12), symbolizing the two cherubims that would be put around the mercy seats.

At ascension, the angels were again present, comforting the men and declaring that Jesus shall come back again the same way he was taken up (Acts 1:10-11).

I want you to please understand this. Jesus was sent after the order of Moses:

“For Moses truly said unto the fathers, A prophet shall the Lord your God raise up unto you of your brethren, like unto me; him shall ye hear in all things whatsoever he shall say unto you.”

Acts 3:22

Moses was prophesying in those days of the coming of Jesus. So Jesus came after the order of Moses and we have come after the order of Jesus. Therefore, if Moses' ministry had angels in it, and Jesus' ministry employed angels at all its phases, then we are to be ministered to by angels as well.

God said to Moses:

“Behold, I send an Angel before thee, to keep thee in the way, and to bring thee into the place which I have prepared.”

Exodus 23:20

There are things prepared for us in this generation also, but we do not have any hope of getting there without acknowledging the ministry of angels. They are the heavenly forces made available to us by God, to bring His plan and purpose for our lives to pass.

God has prepared His manifold wisdom for the last days and we are going to walk in it. You cannot afford to be grounded or stranded in this period when the Church has taken off on a flight.

The Lord has said by the mouth of the prophet that:

“My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge: because thou hast rejected knowledge, I will also reject thee, that thou shalt be no priest to me: seeing thou hast forgotten the law of thy God, I will also forget thy children.”

Hosea 4:6

If you are born again, the Word of God says it is given unto you to know. Confess the following words out loud to yourself before reading further.

I am a disciple of Christ. It is given me by God to know the mystery of the Kingdom of heaven. I am a disciple of Christ; he has given me the gift of supernatural insight to unravel heavenly mysteries. Therefore, from now on, no mystery shall be too tough for me to absorb.

“Lord, I ask specifically, open my understanding to the fantastic ministry of angels. Open my understanding to the mystery of the activity of angels. Help me to appreciate their presence consciously on my side, at all times, and in all my affairs, from today.

“Spirit of the living God, quicken my understanding. Enlarge my understanding, grant me extra insight that I may be able to comprehend all that matters to me as contained in your Book. Amen.”

Chapter Two - THE MINISTRY OF ANGELS

Take a look at God's description of angels in relation to you:

“And of the angels he saith, Who maketh his angels spirits, and his ministers a flame of fire.

But to which of the angels said he at any time, Sit on my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool?

Are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth to minister for them who shall be heirs of salvation?”

Hebrew 1:7,13,14

Is it not exciting to know that these flames of fire are available to meet your needs as an heir of salvation?

Angels do more than sing in heaven; they wage war on the earth. Every redeemed soul has a company, not just one, of these excellent spirits at his disposal. They are not sent to sit down with you; they are your powerful and militant ministers.

Let us examine their ministries in detail.

THEY MAKE THE WORD OF GOD EFFECTIVE

The angels, those fiery forces of heaven, are the performance company of God. They follow the Word of God to make it produce:

“And I saw heaven opened, and behold a white horse; and he that sat upon him [was] called Faithful and True, and in righteousness he doth judge and make war.

His eyes [were] as a flame of fire, and on his head [were] many crowns; and he had a name written, that no man knew, but he himself.

And he [was] clothed with a vesture dipped in blood: and his name is called The Word of God.

And the armies [which were] in heaven followed him upon white horses, clothed in fine linen, white and clean.

And out of his mouth goeth a sharp sword, that with it he should smite the nations: and he shall rule them with a rod of iron: and he treadeth the winepress of the fierceness and wrath of Almighty God.

And he hath on [his] vesture and on his thigh a name written, KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS.”

The scripture says His name is called The Word of God and the army of heaven followed the Word. In the Bible, the phrase “The Lord of Host will perform it” is used frequently. Any time an outstanding prophecy is given, which cannot be humanly explained, that phrase is used. Mary was told a virgin shall conceived and bear child called Emmanuel and the Lord of hosts will do it.

God uses the angels (His hosts) to bring His Word into effect. When God was going to terminate Sarah’s barrenness, He sent an angel (Gen. 18:10). The same thing happened when Elizabeth barrenness was terminated. (Lk. 1:11-20)

The angels of God have the performing rights to act out anything that drops from the mouth of God. They are the assault company that deal with every opposition. They always get the answer and always return triumphant and victorious after every act.

THEY DO GOD'S PLEASURE

“Bless the LORD, ye his angels, that excel in strength, that do his commandments, hearkening unto the voice of his word.

Bless ye the LORD, all [ye] his hosts; [ye] ministers of his, that do his pleasure.”

Psalm 103:20-21

In the course of making the Word of God effective (i.e. doing His commandments), the angels minister God's pleasure to the saints. God said:

“Beloved, I wish above all things that thou mayest prosper and be in health, even as thy soul prospereth.”

3 John 2

That is an instant of God's pleasure, His will for you. The angels are there at your service to bring to pass for you anything that is the will of the Father. They are committed to obeying God's commands. So you can send them to carry out whatever God has commanded concerning you.

The Word says:

“Say ye to the righteous, that [it shall be] well [with him]: for they shall eat the fruit of their doings.”

Isaiah 3:10

It also says there shall be no peace for the wicked, and suffer not the witch to live (Ex. 22:18). Who said these? The Lord. What are the angels to do? To enforce God's commandments. Therefore, their job is to kill witches, to choke the wicked, so that it may be well with the righteous.

As the tither, God's commandment is to rebuke the devourer for your sake (Mal. 3:11). The angels therefore go ahead to see that no devourer escapes the judgment of God. The Word says:

Give, and it shall be given unto you; good measure, pressed down, and shaken together, and running over, shall men give into your bosom. For with the same measure that ye mete withal it shall be measured to you again.

Luke 6:38

Here, the angels organize the putting across to you. They go around to mobilize funds for you. The will of God is a sound mind, for He has not given us the spirit of fear (2 Tim. 1:7). Since the angels do God's pleasure, we see an angel go to Daniel primarily to establish this command:

And he informed [me], and talked with me, and said, O Daniel, I am now come forth to give thee skill and understanding.

Daniel 9:22

You can go ahead and locate all that pleases God concerning you. The angels have a responsibility to ensure that it is established when so instructed by you.

YOU CAUSE THE SAINTS TO WALK ON EVIL-FREE PATHS

Friend, there is an evil zone in life. It is made possible among other things by angelic intervention on every side. When you realize the dignity of God's name and the greatness of His power, the Word says, He is committed to ensure your all round safety. The angels are charged to keep you, such that even the toes of your feet are not permitted to be hurt:

Because thou hast made the LORD, [which is] my refuge, [even] the most High, thy habitation;

There shall no evil befall thee, neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling.

For he shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways.

They shall bear thee up in [their] hands, lest thou dash thy foot against a stone.

Thou shalt tread upon the lion and adder: the young lion and the dragon shalt thou trample under feet.

Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him: I will set him on high, because he hath known my name.

Psalm 91:9-14

Confess the above words to yourself, saying “I”, “my” and “me” wherever the scripture has “thou”, “thee” etc.

God has directed the angels to keep you in ALL your ways. They are in charge when you are travelling, sleeping, working in the office, selling in the shop, going to and from Church – in ALL your ways. Your family, your business, even your academic pursuit is in their charge, because they gave Daniel skill and understanding. As you plug into the ministry of angels, you walk on the evil-free path of life.

THEY ARE A DEFENCE IN CONFLICT

The Psalmist said the God of Jacob defend thee, send thee help from His sanctuary and remember all thy offerings. Some trusts in horses, others in chariots, but God will be a defence for those who walk in the covenant. When others are falling, they will be standing upright, because God is their defense (Ps. 20).

David kept the angels so busy, he never lost any battle all his days. He often pursued his enemies with angels:

Let them be as chaff before the wind: and let the angel of the LORD chase [them].

Let their way be dark and slippery:
and let the angel of the LORD persecute them.

Psalm 35:5-6

Jesus also utilized angels in time of conflicts. He stopped Peter from carrying out any act of defense, saying that he was able to call upon God for the release of 72,000 (12 legions) angels if he so desired (Matt. 26:53), to defend Him.

In 2 Kings 19, we read of how just one angel went on a defense assignment and killed 185,000 Assyrian soldiers. Now, if one angel can do that much, imagine what 72,000 angels can do on your behalf, because we also have access to whatever Jesus had access to on earth.

Every time God had a battle to fight, He sets the angels loose. Satan waged war in heaven, but the angels of God prevailed. If Satan caused in heaven, he would not be afraid to do the same in anybody's home. However, angels are all the security we need. That was Jesus' style.

THEY FORMED A PERMANENT FENCE FOR YOUR SECURITY

Angels form an impenetrable hedge around every covenant son and daughter of God, which makes them untouchable. Job was blessed with this angelic hedge so much that satan complained to God about it.

Hast not thou made an hedge about him, and about his house, and about all that he hath on every side? thou hast blessed the work of his hands, and his substance is increased in the land.

Job 1:10

Unfortunately, Job never saw this hedge and so lived in fear, thus making it easy for the devil to attack him.

You need to be aware of the angelic shield around you and around all that you have. It is ever present. The Psalmist said:

The angel of the LORD encampeth round about them that fear him, and delivereth them.

Psalm 34:7

The word “encampeth” is in the present continuous tense – implying they are always there. After Elisha prayed for his servant’s spiritual eyes to be opened, he saw the mountains round about full of horses and chariots of fire (2 Kgs. 6:17) That was the angelic hedge.

Friend, the angels are real! They are always there. They are invisible forces, with invincible capabilities, sent to minister to us. The devil knows it, so why not use it against him. Tell him now:

“Satan, you have no more inroad into my life and affairs. I have the angelic hedge around me, around my house, around all that I have. Satan shut up there, you cannot get in here. The defenses of God are round about me. Your wicked plans will no more work. I can see the angels, they encamp round me to deliver me. God has given them a charge. They are eternally obedient fighters. They will hearken to the voice of His word, they have a job to bear me up upon their wings. They will make it possible for me to tread upon the lion and the adder and nothing shall by any means hurt me. I am surrounded.

THEY DELIVER THE SAINTS

Whatever prison the devil has shut you up in, the angels of God will bring you out. Daniel was thrown into the den of hungry lions, but the Lord sent His angel, who shut the mouth of the lions. Daniel was the only one who saw the lions' tongue and lived to tell the story. I can imagine him taking a ride on their backs! He was so sure of the ministry of angels that he dared the king to allow justice take its full course. The lions must have approached him wagging their tails like pets, thanks to angelic intervention.

In the book of Acts, we read of Peter locked up in a prison. I believe the saints were praying in Mary's house for the angels of God to penetrate the prison and bring Peter out. While they prayed, the angel of God indeed entered the prison:

And, behold, the angel of the Lord came upon [him], and a light shined in the prison: and he smote Peter on the side, and raised him up, saying, Arise up quickly. And his chains fell off from [his] hands.

Acts 12:7

Peter was asleep between two soldiers when the angel appeared, yet the guards were unaware of what was happening. Just by raising Peter up, the chains fell off on their own accord, they did not have to use any key. Peter was safely led out of prison to where the angels were being called on to act on his behalf. And when he knocked at Mary's door, the others disbelieved Rhoda's report, saying it must be Peter's angel at the door not Peter himself.

Peter's deliverance was the neatest in history. There was no mention of his case in court and he did not have to get out of town – he kept on his crusade. The deliverance involved more than just being released from prison, he was in town, yet could not be touched, because whosoever the Son of God shall set free is free indeed. That is God's commandment for you. The angels ensure that you are free mentally, free spiritually, free socially, free financially, because that is their job.

THEY EXECUTE YOUR DESTINY

When God was going to rescue Israel from Egypt after 400 years of bondage, He sent an angel ahead of Moses to take them out of Egypt to Canaan:

“Behold, I send an Angel before thee, to keep thee in the way, and to bring thee into the place which I have prepared.”

Exodus 23:20

We are all children of destiny, which God has prepared for us, even before we were born. He said the people He has predestined, he has called, and those he has called, he has justified, and those he has justified, He has glorified (Rom. 8:30).

You have a glorious future, and an angel has been given charge over your life to ensure that you get to the place prepared for you. Satan tried to mess up the destiny of Joshua, the high priest, by putting filthy garments upon him, but the angel of God ordered their removal and a charge of garments for Joshua (Zech. 3:1-5).

There is a guardian angel in charge of you. In times of crises you may ask for a special dispatch, but there is an angel permanently responsible for seeing that God's plan and purpose for your life is fulfilled.

Jesus said even children have angels and they behold the face of His Father in heaven (Matt. 18:10). In Lagos recently a woman shared a testimony of how her runaway housemaid returned with her stolen items (after her belongings were anointed) confessing that she had done some evil against the family. She said she tried to kill one of the sister's children, but that a man drew a sword and warned that if she dared it, she would be crushed. Now, that man with the sword was the child's guardian angel.

God said eyes has not seen, ears have not heard, and no man's heart has conceived the things that have been prepared for them that love God (1 Cor. 2:9). The devil is all out to contest the glorious and enviable destiny of the saints. As Paul confirms,

For a great door and effectual is opened unto me, and [there are] many adversaries.

1 Corinthians 16:9

There s a place prepared for you. Satan is mad about it, but he cannot do anything about it, because the Word has gone forth – I will build my Church, and the gates of hell shall not be able to stop it (Matt. 16:18). The angels are among God's provisions to clear off all adversaries in your way.

There is a place of no sickness on this earth. There is a place of super protection. There is a place of success. Whatever place God has prepared for you in redemption, your angel has a duty to get you there.

THEY RELEASE ANSWERS TO PRAYERS

Then said he unto me, Fear not, Daniel: for from the first day that thou didst set thine heart to understand, and to chasten thyself before thy God, thy words were heard, and I am come for thy words.

How Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me; and I remained there with the kings of Persia.

Daniel 10:12-13

It is the pleasure of the father, that when you ask anything according to

His Will, it is given you. But see how Daniel suffered. He was praying and fasting for twenty one days and the Bible says his request has been granted right from the first day it was made. Angel Michael prince of Persia that was standing on the way. A fallen principalities blocked the answer, but by the time a chief principality from heaven got there, the answer was released.

For prayer breakthrough, the angels are available on the line – engage them.

THEY UNFOLD THINGS TO COME AND EXPAND MYSTERIES

Another powerful ministry of angels is the unfolding of things that lie ahead. There are things you have to know about the future and the angels have a responsibility of showing them to you, as in the case of John the apostle:

The Revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave unto him, to shew unto his servants things which must shortly come to pass; and he sent and signified [it] by his angel unto his servant John:

Revelation 1:1

Angels do not only speak of things to come, they also expand mysteries:

And the angel said unto me, Wherefore didst thou marvel? I will tell thee the mystery of the woman, and of the beast that carrieth her, which hath the seven heads and ten horns.

Revelation 17:7

When prophet Zechariah also saw a mysterious vision, he sought the interpretation through the angel:

And I said unto the angel that talked with me, What [be] these? And he answered me,...

Zechariah 1:19

I will like you to open your hearts to angelic mysteries hence forth. Expect revelation of mysteries and prophetic insights concerning you from them. Expect mysterious interpretations of scriptures, producing very powerful effects in your life, through the angels.

They will bring to pass things which you never knew existed before.

Friend, from now on, see yourself as indestructible. The Word of God cannot be broken. By the ministry of angels you shall tread upon the lion and the adder unhurt. By their ministry, no evil can befall you nor any plague comes near your dwelling. The angels of God are round about you and round about all that is yours, like an impenetrable hedge of fire. Angels are present helps in trouble, keeping off all adversaries in the path of your glorious destiny in Christ Jesus. They are always around to establish the will of God for your life.

However, although already positioned by God to minister to you in the various ways of discussed, you have the responsibility of putting them to work or turning them on in order to fully appropriate their ministrations.

Chapter Three - HOW TO RELEASE YOUR ANGELS EFFECTIVELY

It is necessary to remind ourselves that angelic ministrations are saints limited, i.e restricted only to people who have been saved and sanctified by the blood of the lamb and have their names written in the book of life. In other words, you have to be born again before you can enjoy the ministry of angels or get them to work on your behalf or at your request.

God said “I am the Lord, I change not,” hence what He did in the past, He is still doing in the present, He cannot change. The Bible exists, not for information, but for instruction, for guidelines on what to do or not do in similar situations and circumstances. The things that were written aforetime were written for our learning, so we need to look deep into the Word, to locate the master keys and principal ways which the early saints employed for the effective release of their angels.

However, before considering what to do, let us first note not what to do; that is, the factors that might obstruct or delay angelic ministrations, even in the lives of the heirs of salvation.

HINDRANCES

Blindness

When it comes to the things of God, until you believe it, you cannot experience it. Whatever is written must be seen before it can be possessed. Friend, the unbeatable personalities called the host of heaven are all round us. Job never realised it and Elisha's servant was also initially ignorant of the fact.

Don't let any devil confuse about the presence of angels. As I said before, just as the demonic world is invisible, the angelic world is also invisible. Have you ever seen the devil on the street? Has the devil ever introduced himself to you before, saying, “My name is Mr. Satan Lucifer?” Yet, any time you find young men engaged in a brawl or you see an individual on the street who suddenly strips himself naked, you immediately identify the devil as being around and at work, even though nobody can see him physically on the scene. So is it with the angels of God.

Let us look again at the story of Elisha. There was a time when he became so unbeatable, and the devil, and the devil became so uncomfortable, a whole army was delegated to go and arrest him.

Therefore sent he thither horses, and chariots, and a great host: and they came by night, and compassed the city about.

And when the servant of the man of God was risen early, and gone forth, behold, an host compassed the city both with horses and chariots. And his servant said unto him, Alas, my master! how shall we do?

And he answered, Fear not: for they that [be] with us [are] more than they that [be] with them.

And Elisha prayed, and said, LORD, I pray thee, open his eyes, that he may see. And the LORD opened the eyes of the young man; and he saw:

and, behold, the mountain [was] full of horses and chariots of fire round about Elisha.

2 Kings 6:14-17

What you cannot see you cannot utilize. Can you see the mountain on which you stand in full of horses and chariots of fire? The angels of God are flames of fire and because the Word of God rides on the horse, they also ride on horses to execute vengeance and bring deliverance to the saints. Friends, I would like you to see the angels all around you.

Angelic ministration was one of the most powerful ministries of the New Testament which made the saints invincible. Angels were not ideologies to them, rather they were real, every personalities, and a usual and expected experience. You remember that when Peter knocked at Mary's door after his release from prison, those in the house assumes it must be his angel at the door, not Peter himself. Again, there is no scriptural record to show that Peter expressed any shock or amazement at the appearance of an angel in the prison. The angels were very practical beings to them.

To have angelic intervention like they did, and you will begin to operate in the invincible realm.

Elisha prayed that the eyes of his servant may be opened and they were opened. Put two fingers on your two eyes and say to them, “Be opened to see the invisible forces of heaven that are round about me. Be opened in the morning, in the afternoon and in the night.” I command your eyes to be opened to see the angels of God on horses and chariots of fire round about you, everyday, every moment, in Jesus name.

Fear

A second hindrance to angelic ministration is fear and this is a direct result of spiritual blindness. Elisha’s servant cried “Alas”, but his master, recognizing the root of his panic, cured his blindness.

Fear has torments and exposes man to the wicked operations of Satan. God has not given us the spirit of fear, but the spirit of power, love and of a sound mind (2 Tim. 1:7). God has also told us that;

Say ye not, A confederacy, to all [them to] whom this people shall say, A confederacy; neither fear ye their fear, nor be afraid.

Sanctify the LORD of hosts himself; and [let] him [be] your fear, and [let] him [be] your dread.

Isaiah 8:12-13

By fearing the things men fear, walking the way they walk, thinking the way they think and talking the way they talk, the enemy takes advantage of many people and robs them of amazing angelic interventions. There are about 365 instances in the Bible where God says “Fear not” or “Be not afraid,” while I mention earlier, the word angels appeared 300 times. If you can hearken to God’s word and obey His command not to fear, you will indeed see your angels at work.

Make God your refuge and your habitation, then no evil, no matter who is perpetuating it, no plague, no matter what forces are behind it, will have access to you. Make God only your fear and your dread and he will build a defense around you just as he said in Psalm 34:7:

The angel of the LORD encampeth round about them that fear him, and delivereth them.

Friend, until you overcome fear indeed, you do not have access to angelic intervention, but God in His mercy, has made provisions to destroy the yoke and bondage of fear.

HOW TO DEAL WITH FEAR

The Anointing

The Bible says the yoke shall be destroyed because of the anointing. You can anoint yourself against the spirit of fear, particularly when you are out in battle. After the Holy Ghost came on the apostles, they spoke the Word of God with such boldness that all those around took notice. Believe God that when you are anointed, there is an impartation of the spirit of boldness that makes you despise things you formerly feared.

Knowledge

The anointing teaches all things; therefore as the yoke of fear is broken, extra insight into God and His ways is also imparted. More revelation means more strength, and more strength equals less fear. Daniel tells us “The people that do know their God shall be strong and do exploits” Daniel 11:32. The knowledge of God establishes strength on the inside. When you know the worth of God, you know what He is able to do and how he would do it.

Consciousness of God's presence

An awareness of the ever abiding presence of God establishes great confidence in you, which override every fear. David said “Thought I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me...” (Ps. 23:4) Jesus himself assures us: “...Lo, I am with you always even unto the end of the world.” (Matt. 28:20)

As you overcome the twin obstacles of spiritual blindness and fear, you become aware that the forces with you are stronger than that of any opposition and then you will be at ease. When you are at ease God is at work. He said:

Be still, and know that I [am] God:
I will be exalted among the heathen, I will be exalted in the earth.

Psalm 46:10

Now your angels are activated, and are ready to take instructions from you, as you make use of the right keys to set them loose.

KEYS TO RELEASING THE ANGELS

Knowledge

In the kingdom of God, you reign by knowledge. There is no short cut. If you desire liberty, knowledge is it. Nothing works like the knowledge of the truth, because God cannot deny Himself and His word cannot be broken. “You shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free” (Jhn. 8:32). Your liberty in the kingdom anchors on knowledge, not on piety or religious activity as some Christian think.

The subject of angels is a very sensitive one. There is no one who can claim to have a grasp of it without doing some deep study. You need to launch into the deep study. You need to launch into the deep waters of the word when dealing with things that cannot be physically seen. How much you get of your own inheritance as a heir of salvation is determined by knowledge. God is no respecter of persons and he will not do any thing until you know it.

We heard a testimony in January 1993, from an ordained minister of the Gospel, who wrote to us from Ogun State, Nigeria. For seventeen years he was a victim of sickness and disease and was constantly on drugs. From every indication, I believe he was born again and spirit-filled, because he was into joint prayer and fasting with an evangelist.

After 17 years, this man decided he has prayed and fasted enough, so he walked in a bookshop and bought three different books. He bought one on faith, another on the believer's authority, and the third one on divine health, and he went on a knowledge-seeking adventure.

According to him, following the principles and guidelines in the third book which is written by me, Keys to Divine Health, he declared a three days war against Satan and on the third day, he took communion. He said immediately after the communion, “the 17 years old bondage in my life was broken.” He became free from drugs for the first time in 17 years!

Many are confronted with challenges today and had done nothing about it. When they tell me they have prayed and fasted, I tell them they have a long way to go and may yet die fasting without no results. The accuser is out to put you in jail so you need an efficient knowledge of the law that guarantees your liberty in all issues of life.

There is no recovery without discovery. The man Daniel had an excellent spirit, yet he says he understood by books (Daniel 9:2). Having an excellent spirit was not enough, his understanding became real as he reads books. Insights are brought about by outstanding searches.

Friends, discovery is it! You need to settle down. Paul said study, then you will be approved by God as a workman that will never be ashamed as you rightly apply the knowledge of the truth to the situation of life (2 Tim. 2:15). Look for books, tapes – audio and video, anything that can add extra insight to you on the subject of angels. As you do so, you will get to a point where you are highly conscious of their companionship and you can relate with them as physical entities.

CONFIDENCE

The second key to unlocking the doors for angelic intervention is confidence. The devil knows that once your confidence is out of place, you seal off angelic intervention is confidence. You seal off angelic activities on your behalf. So, he will fight your confidence with all he has. As soon as Job confidence was shaken, Satan had an access. Job could not trust the God who has blessed him so greatly, and kept him. Let us take instruction as we consider the lives of those who by their confidence turned on the angels.

ABRAHAM

And Abraham was old, [and] well stricken in age: and the LORD had blessed Abraham in all things.

And Abraham said unto his eldest servant of his house, that ruled over all that he had, Put, I pray thee, thy hand under my thigh:

And I will make thee swear by the LORD, the God of heaven, and the God of the earth, that thou shalt not take a wife unto my son of the daughters of the Canaanites, among whom I dwell:

But thou shalt go unto my country, and to my kindred, and take a wife unto my son Isaac.

And the servant said unto him, Peradventure the woman will not be willing to follow me unto this land: must I needs bring thy son again unto the land from whence thou camest?

And Abraham said unto him, Beware thou that thou bring not my son thither again.

The LORD God of heaven, which took me from my father's house, and from the land of my kindred, and which spake unto me, and that sware unto me, saying, Unto thy seed will I give this land; he shall send his angel before thee, and thou shalt take a wife unto my son from thence.

Genesis 24:1-7

That was a very mysterious assignment that Abraham gave his servants – to go and fetch a wife who does not know the man she will marry. A difficult task indeed, but see what Abraham said – “the Lord of heaven hall send his angels” (verse 7). Abraham has been so familiar with angels at this point, that he was so sure of what they were capable of doing. He gave the instruction and held his peace. If you read the story properly, the Lord did exactly as Abraham said. The servant meet Rebekah fetching water and that was it – the arrangement was so perfect. Everything was in order, by reason of angelic intervention turned on by confidence.

HEZEKIAH

This story is a very classic illustration of how the devil operates.

The king of Assyria was set to wage war against Judah and the first strategy was to attack king Hezekiah's confidence, thus hindering angelic intervention:

And Rabshakeh said unto them, Say ye now to Hezekiah, Thus saith the great king, the king of Assyria, What confidence [is] this wherein thou trustest?

Isaiah 36:4

Rather than let you place your trust confidently in God, the devil always seeks to make an agreement with you. See verse 16 of your text:

Hearken not to Hezekiah: for thus saith the king of Assyria, Make [an agreement] with me [by] a present, and come out to me: and eat ye every one of his vine, and every one of his fig tree, and drink ye every one the waters of his own cistern;

Isaiah 36:16

When you are faced with any kind of challenge, know and believe that it is always darkest before dawn, so do not give in to Satan and his gimmicks.

By the time God intervene on Hezekiah's behalf, the first command was “...Be not afraid...” Isaiah 37:6.

An angel of the Lord responded to the switch of confidence as Hezekiah and his men stood firm: “Then the angel of the Lord went forth, and smote in the camp of the Assyrians a hundred and fourscore and five thousand

(185,000): and when they arose early in the morning, behold, they all dead corpses” (Isa. 37:36)

3. SHADRACH, MESHACH AND ABEDNEGO

King Nebuchadnessar set up a golden image of himself and commanded that all the inhabitants should bow down and worship the idol whenever trumpets were sounded. The punishment for disobedience was to be cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace. The three Hebrew boys refused to bow and they were brought before the king to defend themselves:

Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, answered and said to the king, O Nebuchadnezzar, we [are] not careful to answer thee in this matter.

If it be [so], our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace, and he will deliver [us] out of thine hand, O king.

Daniel 3:16-17

The king was with fiery at their response and ordered the furnace to be heated seven times more than usual. But the boys' confidence was in place and the angels were triggered off to act. As long as your confidence in God is in place, Satan is displaced and the angels take charge. They are the present help in trouble.

The angels arrived in the furnace ahead of the boys, causing the heat to burn to death the soldiers who threw them in. For the boys, the heat of the fire was nullified and charged to a cooling effect. The three boys placed their confidence in God, who is a consuming fire and they came out of the furnace unscratched (Dan. 3:27).

Friend, if you will not bow, you will not burn.

DANIEL

Due to his God given favour with King Darius, the other presidents and princes grew envious and sought to destroy Daniel. They lobbied for a decree ordering everyone to worship no other god but the king himself. Daniel expectedly rejected such an order, because he was fully conscious of where he came from and to whom he was connected, even though a captive. He confidently told the king to allow him face the punishment of being thrown into the lion's den and once again, the angels immediately intervened. As he said the next day:

My God hath sent his angel, and hath shut the lions' mouths, that they have not hurt me: forasmuch as before him innocency was found in me; and also before thee, O king, have I done no hurt.

Daniel 6:22

By my understanding, the angel got into the den ahead of Daniel, just as in the case of the three Hebrew boys in the furnace. A second later would have been too late.

I have had a few experiences myself. Sometime back in 1984, I was driving from Kaduna at about 2a.m, with three other fellows chatting in the car.

Suddenly I notice a terrible narrow bridge right ahead and a big truck was coming in our direction. As soon as the men with me saw the situation, all the loud talking stopped and the car was as silent as a grave yard.

Then the word just blossom in my heart – “He shall give his angels charge over you.” I immediately said in my spirit, “there is no point driving this car into the river. God, whether or from under from above, both this car and all of us in it, who are on assignment, must cross over.”I was so confident, nothing shook within me. Now, how we cross that bridge I cannot tell, but we did without any mishap. The signs of relief from my fellow passengers literally shook the car.

Confidence is the principal key that turns your angels loose. Before you arrive at the point of confrontation, they are already there to see that no evil befalls you. Confidence in God will always make the angels work in your favour. Paul the apostle said:

For we are the circumcision, which worship God in the spirit, and rejoice in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh.

Phillipians 3:3

David who enjoyed so much of angelic ministrations, said “My soul shall make her boast in the Lord: the humble shall hear thereof, and be glad” (Ps. 34:2). Peter was so confident, he slept soundly a day before he was scheduled to die. He slept so deep, the angel had to tap him before he woke up. That is confidence.

It is time to begin to make your boast in the Lord. If you are going for a meeting or an interview for instance, say “The angel of the Lord goes before me to dignify my appearance and put in my hands the things that I desire.” Speak it just like Abraham did, and settle down to see results.

The writer of Hebrews said “Cast

not away therefore your confidence, which has a recompense of reward”
(Heb. 10:35).

PRAYER

Thinkest thou that I can not now pray to my Father, and he shall presently give me more than twelve legions of angels?

Matthew 26:53

Attempts were made to kill Jesus eleven times, yet He always escaped without a scratch. None of His bones were broken and from the above scripture we see the secret.

Jesus prayed to the Father and a special dispatch was sent down on the spot. Every time He called on the Father, the angles came on assignment and He, passing through the midst of them, went His way.

We have access to whatever Jesus had access to, because He said before He left, “....as my Father hath sent me, even so send I you”(Jhn. 20: 21). Jesus revealed how He escaped premature death.

You can also pray to the Father, who is a present help in trouble, and He will give you more than 12 legions (72,000) of angles to come to your rescue.

Jesus suffered no loss. You have access to legions of angles to stop whatever is not written concerning you, by praying the angles down.

COMMAND

This is the fourth key for releasing the angles to work in your favour.

The reason why it sometimes seems like the angles are not at your service despite everything is that there is no order from you. It is not enough to bring them down, you have to activate them by your commands. God said “...concerning the work of my hands command ye me”(Isa. 45:11).

We order the angles of God to take action according to our desires. A perfect instance of this is seen in Elisha's story, when he pray that his enemy should be struck with blindness —”And he smote with blindness according to the word of Elisha” (2 kgs. 6:18). The action was “according to the word” Elisha spoke.

Jesus, in His teaching, described the angles has harvesters. If the words we speak are seeds, it means the angles harvest our words by bringing them to pass. Your tongue is the key that turns them on. Anything you say is what they do. That is why God warned Moses: “Beware of him...” (Ex. 23:21).

We are warned a second time:

Suffer not thy mouth to cause thy flesh to sin; neither say thou before the angel, that it [was] an error: wherefore should God be angry at thy voice, and destroy the work of thine hands?

Ecclesiastes 5:6

This is a very powerful clause in the ministry of angles. I wish people took more note of it.

In giving orders, speak life all the time. Say only what God has said. “This is the day the Lord has made, I will rejoice and be glade in it.” And the angles go ahead to enforce this order as you say it daily.

As you step into your office, say to the angles, “Open my office doors today for favour, such that anyone who comes in will regard me as a person to be loved, appreciated and rewarded.” When you say “I cannot be sick”, your angle sees that as a decree and goes to organize your divine health.

I have been saying that I can not be hospitalized for many years (some people actually got angry with me, but it has not change my stand). I keep saying, “ I cannot sleep in an hospital bed, It is too narrow for me. I have no business lying in a hospital”. My angles hear me, and they have been carrying it out according to my words.

From now on, you should begin to put the angles to work effectively. The supernatural security arranged around you is so impregnable, Satan has no answer to it.

THE NAME OF JESUS

The reason why God has given His angels charge over you is because you know His name:

Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him: I will set him on high, because he hath known my name.

Psalm 91: 14

When you invoke the name of Jesus, you trigger off the angels. The Bible says, "Let all the angels worship Him", therefore at His name, they come in to do His pleasure on the spot. Also, as you release the name of Jesus in faith, a strong tower of angels is built around you:

The name of the LORD [is] a strong tower: the righteous runneth into it, and is safe.

Proverbs 18:10

In a situation where you cannot think clearly or remember any scripture, just invoke the name of Jesus. There is no emergency under the sun that can overcome that name. A Christian was once involved in the world's most ghastly plane crash. According to his testimony, as he called on the name of Jesus, he miraculously came out to safety through a hole which was naturally impossible, considering the size of his frame. His guarding angel pulled him out to safety as he invoked the mighty name of Jesus.

My wife and I were once on a trip when the car began to swerve off the road. My wife started saying “In the Name of Jesus” repeatedly. I told her that calling it once was enough – all hell cannot contain the mention of that name. The car was still moving of course, but I declared boldly, “we will not hit the concrete”, and we did not. That is the attitude that gets your angels excited. It is your turn to engage them. Jesus said any one who is ashamed of me and my Word, I will also be ashamed of him before my Father and His angels (Mark 8:38). That’s means it’s angels respond to his Name and to His Word. Do everything in the Name of Jesus. Before you go to bed, say, “I go to bed now in the Name of Jesus”. Don’t say it quietly, say it loudly and boldly then your angels will lie on for action. You invoke the Name of Jesus to compel the dispatch of angels.

Friend, the angels are there for you and the keys to release them have been given. First you acquire knowledge, then you build up your confidence with God. You then pray them in, command them to action and invoke the arrival with the Name of Jesus.

Chapter Four - ANGELS ON ASSIGNMENT

They Carry Files

“Two Mondays ago when I came for the business fellowship, the pastor who preached said he was going to do PRO for God. He said he wanted to advertise for God.

At the end of the service, I was laughing, after I left the fellowship I had real need for money, I told God I believe everything the pastor said with all my heart. You say that it is in the believing you would do your word.

On my way home that night somebody came to me and told me that one of my old client wanted to see me urgently the following day. I got there, and he signed a check and told me to start the work immediately. As soon as I finish that work, I was giving another one but it was not told how much it was worth. My partner was to travel to Benin, I needed some money to travel with and we had used this previous money to start this new job, by Wednesday, nothing had been said about this new job, then I remember something.

I had been plying two tapes trying to learn more on angels, tape by Bishop and another Kenneth Copeland on ministry of angels, in one of them

Copeland said that in Revelation 1:1, Jesus sent His personal angel to testify of these things, that every believer has a personal angel.

So, I just went into a room in the bank and said, ‘now MY ANGEL I want this money out now. I got there very early in the morning and by 12 noon nothing has been said about the money, immediately I finish praying, I came out of the room and went to the manager office. When I got there he said, what are all the expenses you need? Write them down. I wrote them with biro and he approved it there and then.

I left the office, then I said, “No it is not over”. I said I can still do more.

I said I want this cheque out today I went to the room, I told my angels, 'carry the file from table to table until the cheque comes out'. And the cheque came out that very day.

- Igbekerede, T.

THEY REPAIRED CARS TOO!

In december, my car had a shaft problem. I sent it to my mechanic who repaired it and sent it back to me. But within a week, the problem developped again, to the extend that it now affected the brake, which started leaking.

I took the car back to the mechanic who checked the whole thing and gave me an estimate of 5,000 naira. I took the car back home, poured in a bottle of brake oil, which finished in a day.

I then used the anointing oil. I poured it into the brake pad and sprinkled the type with the blood of Jesus, at the spot where the shaft was making noise. Hen I asked the ANGELS to come and repair the shaft. And they did.

For over 3 weeks now, I've been driving the car without brake oil. My mechanic came yesterday and said he had not seen me yet, I said, 'Jesus is Lord'.

-Ibe, J.

THEY BROUGHT MY MONEY

"I was transferred from Calabar to Lagos late last year. I had some money, including my December salary stuck there. The money was a large sum which I did not want to be brought by road to me.

I then exchange my cheque with a Senior Colleague, who would cash mine over there in Calabar and I will cash his here in Lagos. On reaching his bank, I found he has less than 200 naira in his account and this was just after the December Picnic we had. I had spent a lot on the picnic because I was expecting the cheque.

I called him on phone and told him what happened. He appealed to me to wait for his December salary, which was higher than mine. I waited for it and when it was paid, it was not up to the amount I wanted to collect.

On Friday, after the service, I made up my mind that I must pay my tithe by Sunday, I got cash gifts that helped paid my tithe. I had 100 naira left after that.

On getting home on Monday, I placed the 100 naira on the floor and stepped on it, prophesying that I will never lack money in my life.

I was told that I had to go to Calabar for my money. I wondered how I could do that with the 100 naira that I had. I then asked the ANGELS to take charge. And they did! On getting home I placed that same 100 naira in my mantle overnight. To God be the glory, before 12 O'clock the following day, my money came. I don't know how it came. I just praise God."

-Arosanya, S

THEY ORGANISED FAVOURS FOR ME!

“Since the teaching on angelic intervention, everyday, after my morning devotion, I will say, ‘Angelic, go with me as I am going. Take control, take charge, let me meet with favour.’

Where I live, we have had no light for about 6 months and so we go to other places to fetch water. But this place I went to, they don’t allow non-redidents to fetch water there.

As I got there in the morning, the man I met there said, ‘Oga they don’t allow people but fetch.’ As I was leaving before fetching the water, the man said if I still wanted to fetch some more, he would wait for me to come back.

The following day, I did not go to the office with my car, so I went to the bus stop. There were no buses available so we all had to wait. Suddenly, a bus came and people rushed towards it, but I walked majestically to the bus. The conductor opened the bus for me to enter and those who were already seated made way for me to come in and sit. Indeed, ANGELS have been organising favours for me!”

-Ayinde, D.

THEY ORGANISED HELP!

“Since the Bishop said we should be washing our feet, I’ve been doing that in the morning. I've been anointing my feet and walking round the office, possessing the place.

But after his message on angelic intervention, that we should give instruction to our angels, when I got to the office on Monday, I told the Angels that I want my work to be fast and that I wanted my work to be fast and that I don't want any stress on me and that I wanted them to keep off anyone that was set to despise me.

On Monday, I was surprised to find some of my colleagues who handle light duties coming around to help me. This was unusual, because previously, except they are forced by the boss, they don't come around.

Also, yesterday, there were two colleagues that were all out to despise me. But one of them came around yesterday to help me and the other person came today. I've noticed these changes. I just give God all the glory and praise.

-Momoh, A.

THE ANGELS BLINDED THEIR EYES

On the 23rd of January 1995, my assistant and I arrived to Kinshasha Airport on a missionary programme in Zaire. With several other passengers, we were crowded into an office where we were surrounded by soldiers, who apart from their normal duty of cheking our papers and baggages were out to extort money from the visitors.

They searched our baggages. Nothing! They searched my partner inside out. Nothing! No dollars! Two times, they made him take off his coat, finding it difficult to believe that we had no dollars on us. Nothing!

Meanwhile I had all the mission fund on me, in my inside coat pocket. And I was standing right there beside my assistant, watching as they searched him desperately. But it never occurred to them to search me!

This was because the angels that came to us on that trip, made me, who had possession of the money, invisible! Thanks to God for the series of messages on angels, which the Bishop had preached before our departure from Lagos!

-Pastor Paul Momoh

Chapter Five - NOW CALL ON THEM

Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might.

Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil.

For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high [places].

Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand.

Ephesians 6:10-13

The emphasis in the above scripture is the “whole armour”. It takes the whole to stand. Whatever is proved in the Bible as an instrument for triumph in the hands of God, forms a part of the whole armour – so put it on.

What God has done this study on angels is to train us and equip us for war with unbeatable weapons. With the seal of the angelic dimension of our heritage that has been opened, you have no excuse to fail.

Abraham took the men of his household and trained them for war. When they went for their first battle, they returned triumphant (Gen. 14:14-

I will like you to believe God that the angels on your side, the battle is over. When Gideon saw an angel draw out his sword he asked “Are you for us or against us?” the angel said, “I am here to finish the battle”.

The angels are there to draw out their swords against all your adversaries. They are ever around you. They are flames of fire riding upon horses and chariots of fire. Satan knows it, so use it against him.

God has handed over to us very mysterious things, we must not frustrate his grace.

Is there any area of life where you want to see your angels in action? Now call them on. I don't want you to put your expectation in the future. Jesus said, "Don't you know if I pray my Father, He will give me presently?..."

You want to see the invisible, touchable angelic hand in your affairs? It is available now.

Young men and women looking for spouses, they will bring them to you. They will organise the restoration of every broken home and ensure the re-awakening of every dampened business.

The angels will roll away every stone that locked you inside the cave and turn every fire burning around you to coolness. They will shut the mouth of every lion about to swallow you up in the Name of Jesus.
