DANIEL EKUGBE

Salvation Series

This is the era of the kingdom where God is raising kingdom functionaries to fulfil His kingdom mandate, but still, we can't neglect the fact many are still living in the basis foundation of Christ, the word. Only those who are spiritually mature can truly function in God's kingdom. We must go back to the beginning. I was asking the holy spirit if he'd give me the chance, and I give glory to God He did. In this article, we'll be revealing more on sanctification, before we talk Kingdom, let go back to sanctification, from the basis.

After a man has received Jesus to heart, then there is sanctification, sanctification is a continuous process, but we'll be looking at it from the basis.

A man accepting Jesus as Lord over his life doesn't necessarily mean he's free from sin, because salvation lies at the end, such a man is just in a shaky foundation and is not sure of his foothold, he's still liable to fall, and it'll be terrible for him to fall shortly before his death. Man was born into a fallen state, the moment a child is born, such a child is brought into a death process.

Every man is predestined by God from heaven, created in the likeness of God, but when the soul is sent here on earth, being clothed in an earthen vessel, then such a soul experiences a death process, causing a deformation in the spirit man which makes him no longer in the likeness of God, that is; when a man descends from God to be birthed in the flesh, he no longer has the likeness of God, because that nature has been deformed by sin, a contamination from the flesh. Although, he's in the image of God, but no longer in God's likeness. This likeness, is the spirit nature of God.

The devil has already been at war with God right from the moment he fell, he has lost his place. God then, had to take back His government from the hands of angels and reestablish it on Himself, Jesus and the holy spirit, however, for God to have more functionaries who are God minded, functionaries In His likeness, to prevent another fallen, He had to recreate Himself in man by giving man His spirit, only a man who is like God in His likeness, having the spirit of God can become a perfect functionary in the new government of God.

So you see, a man who has life, is in the likeness of God, because he has the spirit of God, so when he gets to the kingdom of heaven he'll be enthroned above all God has created, he'll be just a little lower than God, Jesus being the first son and the saints being His siblings, coheirs of the kingdom. We shall be His family and we also, shall become functionaries of His government over all His creations, even His angels.

However, the likeness of God in a man born again is sealed by the flesh, unless the glory of God in such a man has broken forth and he's is ushered to walk as a kingdom functionary, giving expression to the likeness of God, through the manifestation of God unto men in his life. However, the likeness, glory of God in a man will remain contained until the day it is released when we shall be restored back to our heavenly dwelling, then we shall be like God, just a little lower.

Many lack knowledge of God's true purpose for our creation and so they live recklessly because their eyes are being veiled.

Should we go on about the main purpose for man's creation? No, we shouldn't. There's more to gaining access into the kingdom of heaven, there is a Kingdom government and many has failed to realize we were created to become functionaries of God's government, because their heart has been veiled by the evil one. There are those born again in the holy ghost whom the devil knew he can't cause to fall and so all he does is hinder them from becoming a functionary in God's kingdom.

Every born again might eventually enter into the kingdom of heaven, but not many will be a part of the new Jerusalem, "God's new Kingdom government," because they failed to be of sacrifice for the kingdom. Those who'll live as functionaries of God's kingdom are those who'll will be part of the new Jerusalem, but not of the same ranking, they all will be placed and ranked in accordance to how much sacrifice they made while in the investment ground, "the earth realm." They'll be crowned, but of different ranking and authority. As Jesus said in the parable of the gold coin.

"Well done," he said; "you are a good servant! Since you were faithful in small matters, I will put you in charge of ten cities."

It's all about the Kingdom, that's why the devil caused the fall of man, because God created man to establish His kingdom, and the only way for Satan to hinder God's plan was to cause the fall of man, bringing him to a state of death since God needs life as a resource for His kingdom building. God Almighty is the source of life, however, for man to have a place in God's kingdom government, man have to harness life for God through the life of holiness lived as a living sacrifice unto God. God made it so, so we can find a part in His Kingdom, such kind of love.

Man, being in a state of death, hinders God's kingdom establish, because God will have to take time breaking and reconstructing a fallen man to become usable, of which is not supposed to be. For those who have lost it and gone to hell, their loss does not mean God's kingdom won't advance, God will only take from them the Minas (life) that was to be given as investment and then, invest it in another to cultivate. So, if you find yourself in sin you're not only ending up in hell, but rather, you're making another man richer and ranking higher in heaven, because what you have will be given to him.

When a child is born, though he's alive, but dead at the same time, he is alive in the flesh, but dead in spirit, because the wages of sin, the wages of wearing flesh without having the spirit of God is death. In other words; a child born is no longer alive, but in a death process, unless he is detached by changing to a government authorized by the name Jesus to be sanctified by the blood from birth, or when he has grown to determine which government he'll yield his life to, be it of light or darkness, he won't be a carrier of life.

And so, Jesus went on the cross to restore man from death unto life, restoring God's spirit in Him to become the likeness of God. The main purpose of Jesus restoring man is not, because he doesn't want man to go to hell, but rather, it is to give man access to salvation, a ticket for his restoration back to his original position in God's kingdom as a functionary. In all this we say; salvation is like a certificate granting man access to his destined job, a Kingdom functionary, that is. We are given grace, but to attain salvation, you must walk through it as you would a college course, it is not grace. And so we say; we are not saved by grace, by grace we are called, but by the righteousness of the holy spirit, we are saved by God through the word " Jesus, " by the holy spirit.

The hearts of men has being veiled by the devil, first; to hinder his heart from being saved, then to blind his sight from knowing the main purpose of salvation. Unless the veil, the curtain of the temple is torn asunder, Jesus can't come into our heart to cause a restoration. Our heart is the temple of God where God dwells and it is the spirit of God dwelling in us which brings us to His likeness. When the heart, the temple is veiled by sin, it is covered in darkness hindering the light of God which resonates from His life in us. Therefore, an absence of God's light is an absence of His spirit.

Every man born of flesh has been corrupted by sin through the flesh, sin in the hearts of men is what hinders and also, it is a veil in our heart, God's temple. For the veil to be torn apart for Jesus to come in, such a man must die, not to wither further away from God, no, rather he has to die to sin, on the cross, to be resurrected with life, having God's spirit. It is when a man crucifies his sin at the cross, deciding never to go back, the veil of his temple is torn apart. On the cross there lies death, but this death births life.

Except we bring our sin nailing it at the cross, we cannot have life. Every man must die to have life. When a man is called by grace and he accepts Jesus as Lord, his decision to nail his sins at the cross invites Jesus to come into His heart, this is where repentance comes in, however, salvation lies still, at the end.

Here's a little mystery of the death of Jesus and at the cross; At the death of Jesus, immediately the curtain of the temple was torn apart, this also, is a reference to our heart. Our heart is the temple of God and the curtain, that veil is what blocks a man from receiving Jesus. Jesus wants to come into the temple, our heart, but if we've not yet accepted His death, His blood, if we've not made the decision of heart to accept him as Lord over our lives then, He won't come in. Man is the main factor, man gives the authorization for Jesus to enter the temple.

It is when a man accepts Jesus on genuine repentance the veil of sin is torn, and the temple exposed for Jesus to walk into.

However, just as the veil is torn, there lies darkness therein. In other words; a man can accept Jesus as Lord, but still bound to darkness, he can enter the kingdom of heaven because he has Jesus, but if he is found guilty of sin, if he is caught using any old property of sin in his temple, he'll be bound to hell when he leaves the earth realm, that how risky it is, relying only on the foundation of repentance is, we must war and grow to attain salvation. If you rely on the basis of repentance, you'll have a shaky foundation in Christ.

Although, Jesus has taken just a little portion of your heart, still you're not allowed to touch any property in the temple because they are mostly of sin, if you don't put any effort by the help of the holy spirit through the word to replace them, you'll eventually falter along the way. For example; if you don't replace a jar of water and you've gone days without water you'll have no choice to be compelled into drinking from the water jar of sin, a property of sin in you. Although, Jesus has come in, but we must let Him fill the temple with light and remove every property of sin. This is where salvation and sanctification comes in. We'll focus more on repentance first, for we can't talk about salvation without talking about it.

- Repentance

Repentance is the first criteria for being restored unto God, it is granted and given on a genuine decision of heart, it is not on war, it is a decision to accept Jesus. The work to accept has already been done by the blood of Jesus which tore the veil blocking the heart for Jesus to come in. Repentance is more than Godly sorrow, it is on two basis; the blood and the name " Jesus."

You must remain in the government of Christ by attaining the name " Jesus," which shields one from the evil one to enable him easily access the blood which gives him a portion of the holy spirit to live partly in holiness, until he is sanctified and filled with the holy ghost to live without sin. Everyone who accepts Jesus receives a little portion of the blood, (holy spirit,) that's the only reason you can pray, feed on the word, and obey, else, you can't. However, to be full of the spirit, you must strive in warfare in authority of the name Jesus to be shielded, even as you strive to spend time in the presence to be filled.

When a man accepts Jesus, there's a change in government, he is given right to use the name "Jesus" and he's given also the blood, " the spirit of God." As earlier said, the name Jesus keeps him under the government of Christ granting Jesus authority over your life, it is in the authority in the name Jesus, he uses as a shield and a defense to fight against spiritual entities of darkness trying to topple the government of Christ in his life. He is in a spiritual warfare where flesh has no say, and so, only the name Jesus is his spiritual covering of authority until he is filled to be given his own power.

It the authority in the name he prayed under (the covering of Jesus) to overcome sin. A newly born again first haven't anything because he hasn't yet cultivated life through the word to access power, the first authority given is in the name " Jesus," an authority that keeps one in check, coverage from enemy's radar to overcome sin through the word, by the blood (holy spirit.)

Sin is a spirit entity and to fight spirits, you need prayers, the only prayer accepted by God from a sinner is a prayer of repentance, no, that isn't a prayer it is a decision, declaration, a contract for a change of government. It is when you've changed government, then you can pray the government to take over the spirit of sin in you. The blood of Jesus, is the spirit of God, it is the blood that keeps us in the path that lead to salvation. However, unless you're truly sanctified, there lies corruption that contaminate and causes one to rise and fall if he doesn't take the right supplements, antibodies to fight against foreign bodies of darkness, and this antibody is the " word."

The blood register us also as children of God, because the blood is His spirit, and only those with His spirit can see God. This is the freedom from sin, a freedom to live under the government of Christ, but there's also a deliverance and except we are delivered, although free, but still, bound, it is risky to be free and not delivered. For instance, a shackled slave is free to move around the house of the wicked master when the chains are takes off, but he has not been let go, he'll only be let go, when he has been delivered from the hands of the master through force.

A man still lingering in repentance, who rises and falls, does not truly have the love of the Father in him, because he doesn't have the mind of God. We all are sent to this earth realm to fulfil God's kingdom mandate, not just for salvation to escape hell. Sin was merely a hindrance cutting us off from God. And repentance, repentance is merely just a criteria to be restored back to original position as Kingdom functionaries of God, and to our original mission " the establishment of God's government." We are here in the earth realm, the realm of time, where we can harness life for God to draw from, for His kingdom building.

All that happened to us was like; astronauts who went on exploration, only to find themselves crashed and displaced in an alien world infested by a stigma which caused a mutation hindering them from their original purposes. They then, have to search for a quarantine process and a cure to be restored back to their original state in order to continue and fulfil their mission.

if there wasn't sin, if man hadn't fallen, God would've begin His workings in every man, to walk in their ordination in His Kingdom. If man hadn't fallen, there would've be no hindrances, God wouldn't have to reconfigure and reconstruct a man before he can be of use, man would've immediately begin to functioning in his ordination for God's kingdom establishment without any need for salvation processing.

A man who still rises and fall, a man still on the foundation of repentance, plays a risky game, there are many possibilities he might fall and end up in hell, even though he does make it to heaven, his life would be a disgrace unto God, because his life without investment was a decline in God's Kingdom establishment, he'll be judged and amounts to nothing in eternity, because he failed to yield any fruit, only interest.

This is repentance, don't settle on repentance, get salvation so you can have relevance in God.

- Salvation

We need to break things down a little, after repentance comes salvation. Salvation is a process we must walk through willingly, it's not a path of grace, it's a path of righteousness assisted by the holy spirit, the spirit of righteousness. Repentance is a freedom process whereas, salvation, is a deliverance process. God does not have any business with a man who is not yet delivered, it is the deliverance birthed from salvation that triggers in us the filling of the holy ghost, registering us to become part of God's kingdom. Salvation as I said; is just a ticket to restored back to God so that his kingdom will be dawned in our heart, for us to cultivate into a harvest.

Salvation is the deliverance of man from bondages of sin, except a man is delivered, his foundation is not yet solid, only those who have been delivered are sure of their salvation. And only those who have been delivered will God rest his kingdom. Salvation is a death process to gain life, it is on stages, it is processing, you must have come to a state of perpetual death to sin at the cross to attain salvation, every sin you overcome through the word is a death process to gain life.

God is concerned about processing, that's why salvation is a process, you must be tried to show your conviction and faith because God is looking for men whom He can trust, He isn't looking for another Lucifer in his kingdom, in other words, just as salvation is a deliverance process from sin, it is also a selection process to see those who have much love for God. You'll be judged by your righteousness, it is by your righteousness (effort) God will judge your heart to know how much you'll become of use to Him when you've attained salvation.

Salvation is processing on righteousness and sanctification, you can't rush it. However, the more you yield to dwell in God's presence through the word and prayers, the quicker you'll get your deliverance. Whereas a great man of God carrying the weightiness of God's life can super impose God's life into you, which will cease you from sin immediately, still you have to maintain the life you've been imparted with by dwelling on God's presence. In the end you'll still get back to processing else, you'll lose that which you've been given, because it has not yet been laid in a solid foundation.

A strong foundation in Jesus can only be attained through processing, constant yielding to the word accompanied with prayers. If you're to lay the foundation of a building you don't do it rush, it takes processing, whereas the building above the ground can be done with precise acceleration. You don't see the foundation which is rough, but you see the outer building and its beauty, whereas the foundation is not acknowledged by men only by God, the foundation is buried and solid, it is not used generally, but without it the build can't be used it'll crumble. So also, is the course of salvation, you'll be tempted and tried, persecuted still, value processing, the foundation is rough and tough but at the end a beautiful house is erected, where God dwells.

Without processing, going through the fire, you can't have tangible testimonies for the gospel, God needs your processing so that when He gives you his word into men, you'll incorporate it with your processing, the life you've cultivated to impart the hearts of men. Our salvation process also forms the basis of our righteousness for God to invest

In us, the Kingdom, in the near future. A man who has gone through processing and is refined is filled with the holy spirit and ready for God to begin his workings in Him.

Processing is a trial phase before salvation is attained where every heart will be unveiled before God. Salvation is built on righteousness (effort) to overcome, we mortals are no robots, we must be tried for our heart to be revealed.

Sanctification is needed for salvation but, sanctification is supported also with righteousness (effort.) You can't be saved if you've not put effort for the holy spirit to do His workings, He needs your authorization to function in you, and so, you must apply effort, yielding yourself to dwell in the presence, to be filled with the holy spirit, through the word and also in prayers. Then, the holy spirit will begin to act on the word you've absorbed to sanctify your heart, bringing about salvation. The holy spirit does the work of sanctification, but He needs also, the cooperation of our heart.

Righteousness, our effort, we need righteousness to get to the end. However, we can't rely on our own strength, we need the righteousness of the holy spirit, he is the spirit of righteousness, that's why we dwell in the word for the holy spirit to be birthed and grow in us to maturity, the very nature of God, enabling us obey and meet the requirements for the Lord's deliverance in our lives. If we function only on our strength then, our righteousness is a filthy rag before God, but when we grow in the word for the holy spirit to assist us in righteousness, it is then, no longer a filthy rag before God, because we have in us, the holy spirit, the spirit of righteousness.

We need His righteousness, because we are in a spiritual warfare. Our righteousness is to devour God's word as food, our effort to harness life from God word to grow the holy spirit in us to maturity will bring about our deliverance. The holy spirit in us feeds on life (God's word) just as the spirit of sin feeds on death which comes from sin. The word is life, we must feed on it, not for knowledge, but to harness life for the holy spirit to act upon, bringing about our deliverance. And our effort to pray also, safe guard our hearts from being invaded by the evil one or sin. When we pray also, it builds our intimacy with God because, is a communion, a relationship with God.

- Sanctification

For us to be delivered, we need our hearts sanctified by the holy spirit, and this can only be activated through the word and prayers. Our heart needs to be purged by the holy fire of God, (the fire of the holy ghost.) His fire, is a sanctifying fire that purifies and purges all entities of darkness within our hearts. Please I would want you to pay careful attention to these;

- God's word is life, the substance to fuel the fire of the holy ghost..
- The Holy spirit also, is the holy fire.
- Our heart, is the altar of God we must put in order.
- Prayer, is the process of sacrificing.

Our prayers unto God, is an act to carry out the sanctification process by the holy spirit. Prayer can be seen in diverse dimensions, but for sanctification; prayer comes in not as a relationship, but as a building process for the altar of God (man's heart) to be ignited in flames of the holy ghost to incinerate every entity of darkness. Knowing this will make you know how much you need the word of God as fuel, to fuel the fire of the holy ghost to quicken your sanctification and delivering you from darkness.

Sanctification by the holy spirit is through prayers, the word is needed as a fuel and the holy spirit is the fire, our act of prayer is the process or order in which our heart is set on fire. When we are filled with the word (fuel,) when we pray, then the fire of the holy ghost acts on the word, engulfing our hearts in flames, sanctifying and purging it of every impurity. The fire of the holy ghost doesn't kill rather, it sanctifies, it is a holy fire, all that it incinerates is darkness.

Prayer is the process for sanctification to allow the holy ghost sanctify our heart. How much fuel you add through the word will determine how much the fire of the holy ghost will burn to sanctify our hearts. The fire of the holy ghost is already there when you receive Jesus, all you have to do is add fuel to the fire, the more he burns, the quicker your, sanctification and deliverance.

For man to attain salvation, he must be delivered from all entities of darkness, the spirit of sin and spirit of the word.

Our heart is the temple of God, when we accept Jesus as Lord, the veil is torn, giving Jesus access to dwell in our temple, however, just as Jesus dwells in us, He doesn't reside fully because, our heart, our temple is still filled with darkness and the properties of sin lies therein. Unless we put out all properties of the devil in our temple, the Lord cannot fully reside, we cannot attain salvation. We must spend time feeding on God's word to absorb life, it is then, the life of God in us that births light to vanquish darkness in our heart. It is this light activated in us through the word, the holy spirit uses to search our heart for all that is not of God, in order for us to be delivered.

We must be filled with the word, else our light will be shrouded in darkness. It is the holy spirit that searches our heart to reveal unto us every property of sin in us, even things you think weren't sin. As you begin to die to yourself to remove them from your heart, they are being replaced by the properties of God. Your temple must be free of every property of sin, as I have earlier said on repentance in an illustration, using a jar of water to represent a certain sin in our heart. If that jar of water in your temple is lust and you've not yet replace it, when next you're thirsty and your flesh is weak, if you're to drink water from your temple, instead of drinking from a new jar containing life, you'll eventually have to drink from that jar of lust.

This is why men continue to fall, because they've not yet be emptied of all properties of sin in their temple, all they did was accept Jesus and stopped growing deeper.

- Deliverance from sin

Sin is a spirit and every man is governed by a spirit. Man is tripartite being, having both spirit, soul and body. The body is the earthen vessel which houses the soul to enable it walk the physical realm. The spirit could be any spirit entity, be it of God or darkness. The spirit is the driver of the soul which drives a man to live under it's government, still the man gives authorization for the spirit to drive his soul.

Every man in sin is subjected under the government of sin, controlled and driven into sin, he cannot stop sin, no matter how hard he tries, he finds himself driven back to it, because he has not yet changed the driver of his vehicle (soul). In other words; we are like a vehicle, the vehicle is the flesh, the engine is the soul which powers the vehicle and the spirit is the driver. Unless you change the driver to the holy spirit, you'll be bound and driven by spirit of sin driver the car (your soul.) Many don't know this, and so they think it's something that can be undone through counselling or determination alone. It is through the word, you fuel the spirit of the God in you to gain dominance taking charge over the driver of sin. It's like a man hijacking an oil tank in the high way.

Every man is bound by a spirit, all the spirit does is whisper to his heart and then, he'll have to give authorization for the spirit to function through him. Don't say the devil cages you to sin, you gave him the authorization, same way the Lord has been whispering to your heart, give Him authorization to take over. If yield and subject your heart to the whispers of God, He'll take charge as the driver of your vehicle (soul .)

The spirit of the world, this is what the devil has used to keep many in check who claims to be children of God. A man bound by the spirit of worldliness is bound also, to sin, because worldliness firstly; is idolatry, glorifying a spirit not of God. Worldliness also fuels the spirit of sin in a man making him go deeper into sin. The most common form of worldliness is found in worldly songs and I must say; over ninety percent of church goers are bound to this. I have seen many who claimed to know Jesus, they pray, work for God's church, they also claim to live a holy life, but still, feed the spirit of darkness in them with worldliness through songs or whatever medium.

When a man listens to a song that communicates the spirit of anger or sexual Immorality, it fuels the spirit of anger and sexual desire in him, making it difficult for Jesus to bring him out of sin. Anyone who is bound to the world is bound to sin, he might not sin in the open, but in the secret, he is dying. There are diverse form of worldliness, but this is the most common, in songs.

" Give to Caesar what is Caesar's and to God what is God's."

You cannot say you worship God and devil at same time, that's idolatry. If you're in this, come out of it. By the grace of God, we'll be trusting the holy spirit to talk more on the spirit of worldliness.

No one can be delivered from worldliness without being delivered first, from sin, it takes the filling of the holy spirit to be delivered from it, you won't even know it's a sin until you're filled with the holy spirit to discern, then he whispers to your heart, telling you that which is of sin.

Jesus came to restore man back to life so that we can be restored by His blood, through His word, bring us unto salvation. It is the processing of salvation that prepares and refines a man being filled with the holy spirit to be ushered into God's kingdom to fulfil his role and God's project as a functionary sent by God.

Without God's word you can not be saved, you just can't, anyone who calls himself a child of God and does not hunger for the word, know he's not. He's just a lie, a charade.

In summary, all we need to be sanctified to get salvation is the word, obedience, prayers and faithfulness.

Be delivered from the bondage of sin and the word, then truly, you've attained salvation, only a man who has attained salvation can boast saying these words;

1 John 3:9

" Those who are children of God do not continue to sin, for God's very nature is in them; and because God is their Father, they cannot continue to sin."

It is the spirit that boast in us free from sin, we can't on our own else it'll be a judgement unto us. Only such are sure and ready to die at anytime, because they're sure of their future being secured in the kingdom of heaven.

The death process orchestrated by the devil during the fall of man, disconnected man from God, hindering that which God wants to fulfill. God's true agenda to establish a kingdom government, with man as it's functionaries.

Having obeyed all obedience and being sanctified by the holy ghost to be filled with the holy spirit, a man is then qualified and ushered into God's kingdom to become a kingdom functionary, a vessel to be used by God. Here nothing hinders a man apart from the spirit of the flesh. Kingdom functionaries are men who no longer care about entering the kingdom of heaven, because they know their names are already written, rather they strive to become of much relevance in God's kingdom, they strive to gain more ranking amongst the Immortals. There is a Kingdom building and it is also an investment, how much you invest in time unto eternity will determine your placement and ranking in God's kingdom.

Since this is mainly a salvation series on sin, we'll trust the holy spirit to give just a little briefing on the kingdom of God.

Salvation in Kingdom terms, is merely a filtering process to elect those who are fit to invest more in God's kingdom. This is why we go through the trial process of salvation, to reveal our righteousness and our love for God. Know that God doesn't no love as emotions from mortals, love are translated to spirit entities as selfless sacrifice. A man who just wants to enter the kingdom of heaven without living as a sacrifice for God, not just a sacrifice, but as a sacrifice of great value, is a greedy man, if you're in this category well, sorry you're greedy.

Every man is given a part to function in God's kingdom, you just have to yield and be in alignment with the holy ghost to discern the move of God, discerning the move of God will then, usher you naturally into your ordination, your part in God's kingdom. After a man has attained salvation, he is given a new desire by the holy spirit, a desire not to enter the Kingdom of heaven, but to become a functionary in God's kingdom government.

Once you're filled in the holy ghost, you have no choice, naturally you'll be ushered to become a building block in God's kingdom, you just have to walk into it. It's okay, no one will force you, after all that's why the kingdom of darkness has been advancing so much, because we have so few children of God who would venture into the realm of God, who would look beyond the vistas of heaven, becoming more intimate with God so that they can be of use. We are placed here to be of use, our righteousness to become more intimate with God will determine how much more God will invest in us.

I won't say much on this, the holy spirit has been speaking on God's kingdom for a while, but he told me He wants to talk about salvation, because it seems we have too many kindergarten born again and many who think they have Jesus when they don't actually.

As I said, the only thing that hinders a man of the kingdom, isn't sin because he has already been delivered, rather it is the flesh. The devil knows he can't cause such a man to sin and so he tries to hinder God's kingdom establishment by choking such a man with the things of the flesh, the issues of life, pleasure, comfort, desires and ambitions of the flesh, all these hinders the move of God in a man's life. You must realize, especially in this last generation that all is vanity, you are being called to serve, not your flesh, but God.

All you've attained should become mere platforms for you to advance God's kingdom. You must sacrifice flesh in the fire as a living sacrifice unto God to generate life resource unto God for the establishment of His kingdom building. Sacrifice is what makes us relevant in God's kingdom, men who have sacrificed much will be acknowledged much, much will be invested in them, those who didn't, even what they have will be taken and given to those of greater sacrifice. This is the righteousness of kingdom men, to die continually to self so that life of much value can be harnessed unto God.

Unless you've dethrone the flesh, you won't be granted full access to walk in the ordination God has called you for, it is how much you walk and invest in it you'll be crowned and ranked in God's kingdom. It was when Jesus had finished dealing with the flesh in the wilderness He was restored and enthroned with authority. If you're not righteous enough to sacrifice much, you won't manifest fully, the fullness of God.

This is the salvation of men of the kingdom, a salvation to be free from the world and the flesh, letting nothing hinder the move of God in their lives.

We must die to ourselves to become valued functionaries of God, a precious block cut and we'll be chiseled to fit perfectly into God buildings, the new Jerusalem. This is the highest form of salvation a man can attain, not from sin, but from himself.

Strategic Government Of The Spirit Of Sin

The wages of sin is death, and death itself to the spirit man is a process. Sin actually is a spirit, a spirit of diverse species, it's like a colony, it is the colony you subject yourself to, under such colony you'll be enslaved. As as you remain bound in the slavery of such civilization, your spirit man will be trapped in a perpetual state of death.

The spirit of sin in a man is what causes his fall, you must realize now that your very actions are being influenced by spirit entities, all they need is a little tweaking and you'll live as an expression of that spirit you gave authorization over your life. When men who are in sin are having a gathering, it's not merely coincidence, it is orchestrated. An unbeliever meeting with an unbeliever might look planned to them, but in reality, it's merely two different spirit of darkness coming together just to say hello, creating a bound to keep them bound deeper in sin.

Our life's give expression to spiritual entity. If you're filled with the holy spirit, you can see a man and by the help of the holy spirit discern a spirit keeping him bound to sin. I have met people whom I didn't even need to shake their hands, because even their presence exude the spirit of lust in them.

Sin is death, it is a death process, when you fall and continue wallowing in sin, what you don't know is; you've being sentenced to a death process, a state of decay. Unless you escape, entering into life, you'll continue to wither and when your withering is complete then, you'll be cut off from the earth realm and cast out into the fire. Sin is the only thing that restricts the presence of God in a man, the moment a man sins, he dies, God then, ceases to function in him, because He only functions where there is life.

If you're at a foundational level in Christ Jesus when you fell, you'll have to start your building process I'm Christ all over, the more we venture into sin, prolonging our death process, the lesser we become like God, all which God has built will be reduced to nothing, this is the decaying process of death, it crumbles God's project in a man's life.

The reason a man is still wallowing in sin is not because it is pleasurable, it is, because he's been driven by a spirit at work in him, commissioned an assignment to bring down God's building in his life or hindering God's foundation from being laid in his heart. Those who have fallen, your building didn't just collapse at once, it underwent a decay process.

For instance; if a constructed building is being abandoned at an early stage, it's building purpose will be delayed, but still, the construction can begin from where it stopped if the builder overcame the hurdle hindering the completion, but if the building is left untouched for long, in time, it'll begun to fail and eventually crumble. If the builder should come back to it, he'll need extra workings, or he'll have to bring it down and start all over again. So also, is the effect of sin in a man.

Any man who dwells in the realm of death will live a life of death, everything he does, his life, carries the stigma of death and so he crumbles at anything. However, the suffering birthed from sin is not just for the devil's pleasure, it is to keep a man in check, throwing him further away from God. The more a man sins, the more he's hindered from attaining salvation until the day he accepts Jesus by grace.

Sin acts as a rebellion force against God's government, and the only mechanism for the devil to function effectively in this warfare is to create an army of fallen men. God's original plan was to recreate Himself in man, in His likeness, to establish a government which shall reign over all He created, angels weren't created for that, but we are and so we are the perfect fit for God's kingdom. However, the devil knew this, and so he tried to thwart the plans of God by breaching the heart of man (God's tool for His kingdom establishment) with sin, the stigma of death.

God needs life harnessed by men from Him the source, to establish His government, as long as life no longer remains on earth, that is; in the hearts of men, God will have no medium to harness life for His kingdom. That was the original purpose of sin orchestrated by the devil, it's just a long term hatred against God and His kingdom, we were just caught up in it.

We were created in God's likeness to re-establish His kingdom, however, being born in a fallen state, God wants our hearts refined through the word by sacrifice, because sacrifice to obey is a more efficient way God uses to harness life of value through men and so, He allows the devil roam freely.

Knowing this, whenever you sin, think not only of yourself, but rather of God's Kingdom, the life of a sinner becomes an opposition, and so God calls the ungodly, " wicked men," it's only a wicked man that lives against God's Kingdom.

Man was created naturally in the likeness of God but, the moment he wore corrupted flesh to walk the earth realm to fulfil God's kingdom mandate, his soul was deformed and was fallen from the state of being in God's likeness. His heart corrupted by sin caused a mutation, making him no longer in the likeness of God, but rather only in God's image. This mutation caused man to bend easily to sin, because of the spirit of sin in him. Unless he accepts Jesus and attains salvation to be restored in the likeness of God, he'll continue in his fallen nature.

Before a man is driven by a spirit into sin, firstly; Man already is in a fallen state, and the hearts of men is designed by God to be porous to any spirit entity, be it of God or of darkness. Man's heart is a medium for spirits to find expression and every moment, our heart is being bombarded by communications from diverse spirit entities, but we have our own will of choice to let a spirit find expression.

However, once we choose to yield our hearts to the government of a spirit entity, we become like zombies, partially mind controlled, to live and function under the government of that spirit. What causes men to sin or live holy is not just because they have the conscience for it, every man is driven by a spirit entity they surrendered their hearts to. No man would say he wasn't aware of his sins committed, every man knew the spirit of sin whispering to his heart before he ventured into it because, no spirit can function in a man except man gives authorization to that spirit.

As mighty as God is, He won't force anything on you, rather, you must give Him an authorization. If the spirit of lust whispers to your heart, your willingness to yield and give authorization to that spirit of lust will place you under the government of the spirit of lust. Whereas man is not bound to one specific type of sin, he can be bound to many, but there is an Achilles heel, a head spirit of sin dominating his heart, keeping him so bound to captivity. All other sins, he can decide to stop on his own, but for his Achilles heel, his real weakness, he'll need the holy ghost birthed from the word.

When a man yields to a spirit of sin, he is driven by that spirit, his actions might look real to him, he thinks he's in control, but he is been driven, he is being manipulated, every of his steps are being altered by that spirit of sin and so, when he finds his heart lusting after a lady, if he lust after a certain kind of lady, he'll discover that whenever he goes out, that's the kind of lady he always sees to trigger the spirit of lust in him, this happens to him because, he's being manipulated into that which he likes, to feed that spirit of lust in him. So, If you find a lust partner who you claim to be your soul mate, but still nursing lust in your heart, know then, you're being manipulated to be bound deeper in sin.

As for the particular lady type he likes which passes his view whenever he goes out, still they too think they're just going on about their business, but what they don't realize is their movements are being orchestrated, altered and manipulated just to cause a man to venture deeper in sin and so, ladies should mind what they wear before they commit murder. They're merely puppets at the hands of the devil, the same way it is, if you're of God, you life will be orchestrated to bring light into a territory or other to light.

Unless you change this driver of sin or worldliness, you'll never be free. Whenever you're in sin, be aware and admit you're being manipulated and influenced by a spirit you gave authorization over your life.

The driver of your soul needs to be switched to the holy spirit and you can't have him, if you've not yet yield to the authority of the government in the name Jesus, subjecting you to live a life of the presence, dwelling in the word and in prayers to be filled with the holy spirit. These are the elements that births the holy spirit which causes us to be restored into the likeness of God. It is the strategy of the devil to hinder you from dethroning his government over your life.

In summary, the only way to overcome sin is through the word, faithfulness to obey and prayers. The reason you're still struggling is because your righteousness is not enough, your not trying enough.

For a child of God, to him the wages of sin is death, it is eternal condemnation to him, but as he begins to grow, as he begins to journey deeper in intimacy with God, being filled with the holy spirit, a new dimension of sin's consequences are being unveiled. Such a man who will find it difficult to driven into sin because of God's very nature dominating him will do everything to restore all that he had lost, he'll strive to align himself with the holy ghost so he can be guided and built to advance the kingdom of God which his life of sin had once declined.

Every man in sin is not just a sinner, no one can sin and go unpunished. Every sin a man had ever done is a decline in the advancement of God's kingdom. In other words; we who are now functionaries of God's kingdom were once enemies of God, because our failure to be under His government was a hindrance, an opposition to His will. It's more like espionage.

The consequences of sin for a kingdom man causes scars which need to be healed through constantly filling of the water of life. That's why a man who is a functionary of God's Kingdom dies to himself and dwells in the presence, he spends time in the word and in prayers to become the full manifest of God. Else, the evil which he was once bound to, if heavily bombarded by the energy emitted from carriers of that spirit of darkness in a territory, if he's not fully clothed, in time, his barrier will be breached and his heart invaded, corrupting or hindering his intimacy with God. He might not fall, but his heart might be distorted. And so, we dwell in the presence, journeying deeper to become more like God, a being without corruption.

The more we're being filled with the life of God, the more He functions in and through us. All men are forgiven of sin when they accept Jesus as Lord, however, no sin goes unpunished. When a man becomes born again, he must face the consequences of his sins, he can't escape it, he must be punished. He's punished, but his punishment only finds expression in this earthly realm which is based on time, in other words; when he has done his time he'll be more refined and restored unto God. Whereas, it is not so for a man who is now filled in the Holy Ghost and elected a kingdom functionary.

For a Kingdom man, the consequences of sin have effect on time, because time is what a kingdom functionary invests on to birth life as resources for God's kingdom to establish, his years wasted in sin have become a waste of investment. Sin eats time, how much you live in death will count the time you've lost, but when you are restored to God to function in his kingdom, all will be restored, if you sacrifice for restoration, you must die to all pertaining to life and so God said; Joel 2:25

"And I will restore to you the years that the locust hath eaten, the canker-worm, and the caterpillar, and the palmer-worm, my great army which I sent among you."

Sin is a spirit that traps men in captivity of death, locking him out of life and time to invest in God's kingdom.

A man who has been filled and elected a kingdom functionary, has become an immortal walking the earth realm, all that he does, is not invested in the earth realm, rather they're all invested in eternity, he uses time as an investment. How much worth is his sacrifice to harness life through time will determine his placing in eternity, and here comes the consequences of his sin.

Once bound in captivity to sin, he has lost time, and since time is a factor to be invested on, to translate life unto eternity for God's kingdom where everything is placed and life paused, he needs to regain time. In eternity, all things are placed, there is no change in rankings, time is the only basis on which we can change and alter our placement and ranking in heaven. When all is said and done, how much we invest in time will determine or placing in God's kingdom building.

A man of the kingdom must have the will to lose his life to gain it, he must die to everything to gain life, all that is flesh. The things of the world to him are mere factors of conversation to birth life, Whatever he has, whatever he's achieved, his flesh, are sacrifice to be casted into the fire to harness a life of great worth for the kingdom. It is the worth and value of life he harnesses from God, God will then use to function in the earth realm and also determine the placement of such a man in eternity.

He who sacrifices much, much will be given. In the eyes of a Kingdom functionary, all things are merely objects of sacrifices, and not for pleasure, even his flesh. He lives a life of death, because he knows the will of the Father, even if he's not aware of the mystery, still the spirit of the Father resonates with his heart to enable him live as a sacrifice for the Kingdom.

He'll need to build Intimacy In God, for God to recover all the cankerworm has eaten, and he can only be truly fulfilled when all pertaining to his ordination is completed. Only by sacrifice and intimacy, just as Jesus died to all that is flesh and at the end said it is finished when he finished his purpose on earth, so also, we must journey, to fully invest on what God has ordained us for. Every man is to be ordained for a purpose in the kingdom, everyman. The extent to which we walk in our ordination, will determine our placement in God's Kingdom.

This is our punishment for sin, an eternal punishment for those who didn't fulfill completely God's project in their life. We'll be rewarded on accordance to our sacrifice. if you sacrificed less and eventually didn't walk in completion of the terms of your ordination, you won't be fully rewarded in the kingdom of heaven.

Once fallen because of sin, this caused hindrances as we function in time. God begins to break and reconstruct. The more you birth the death through sin, the more it takes God time to break and reconstruct man, restoring man to His original position, what He wants him to be.

Every sin a man does is at hindrance, a building block of abnormality which needs to be broken, it makes a man weighty and out of shape. God needs time to chisel a man to become a perfect fit for His new Jerusalem. So the more you venture into sin, the more it takes God to chisel you into a fine vessel compactable to manifest His glory, you might end up a vessel of less value.

Whatever the devil did failed in the end, causing the fall of man, it failed, because God turned it against him. Sacrifice yield a life of fine value harnessed for God's kingdom, because out of the sacrifice to break out of sin, overcoming temptations and enduring trials, out of it comes the finest block chiseled to used for God's kingdom building. Now, I'm not saying you should venture deeper into sin, if you do you'll only hinder the manifestation of God in you.

The only way for us to become functionaries of greater value, we must remain in Him (Jesus,) we must detach from all and remain in Him. It is a life of death, a new kind of death, not from life, but to the world and flesh, to gain life. Except a man remains in the vine he cannot harness life for the kingdom. Jesus will ascend the highest of throne in God's kingdom and we the branches, attached to the vine, are the branches of His government, we must remain in Him to fulfil our duties as functionaries to the fullest for the advancement of His kingdom.

He is the vine, from which life is drawn, he is the source of our life, but He must depend on us to bear fruits for His kingdom. We are part of Him as a branch, but we cannot bear fruit unless we remain in Him and Him in us, it is a specie of vine that functions differently from the normal. We the branches must sacrifice to draw life from the vine, to bear good fruits for the feeding of the kingdom. We must remain in Him, a little detachment from Him to attend to the world, a little detachment from Him to attend to the flesh, is a decline in our ability to bear good fruits.

The branch that remains, that is; the one who dwells in the presence at all times, in the word, in prayers, sacrificing his time (life,) will bear much fruit than the others because, he remained at all time, he always dwelled in the presence. A little detachment, a moment we're disconnected from the presence of God, time had been wasted.

Time awaits no man, every time wasted not on God is a decline in the value of life you'll harness to bear much fruit. We need to listen to the holy ghost, because it's not only through the word and prayers you harness life, we harness life also, through sacrifices to yield and walk in alignment to the government of the holy ghost, failure to listen or comply will diminish our harvest? To the holy spirit obedience is sacrifice.

The holy spirit is the one who guides and assists us to remain in the vine and how to function to bear edible fruit for the kingdom. You must have grown to an extent of recognizing the holy spirit as a person closer than none other, before you can yield fully to his government, if you still call him an " it " or " one of those thing, " " my mind said," then, your still far away from bearing good fruits..

" If you obey my command, you'll remain in my love."

We must remain in the love of Jesus in order to bear fruit. We've once served as functionaries of death against the kingdom of God, now that we've been restored, we must serve as functionaries for God's kingdom by remaining in His love through obedience, it is only through obedience (sacrifice) to His will we can remain in his love. His love for us is to restore us to the original position He made us for, our rightful ordination In His kingdom and our love for him is not just love, it is sacrifice.

Our love or obedience to Him is in a dimension of sacrifice. He who loves more, that is; he who sacrifices much for God, will be loved more, he who's loved more, that is; he who has an in-depth level of intimacy in God, much will be invested in him to bear much fruits.

As Kingdom functionaries, there is more to obedience than obeying the commandments or word of God, we must grow and dwell always in His presence to be able to discern and yield to whatever burden He lays in our heart to give attention, until we truly attend to His burden, until we're done carrying his burden then, we truly have obeyed. A Kingdom man must learn to yield fully to the commands of the holy ghost else, he won't go far, and his command is death. You must carry every burden he puts in your heart to the end to build and refine you into bearing much fruit, else you can't contain the glory of God.

Every burdens of the holy ghost are meant to deal with the flesh and whatever weightiness caused by the fallen man, to be able to host and maintains more of God's glory. God is about to dwell fully In us, and He can't do that if we aren't crushed, converted, refined and refurbished. All He has been doing from repentance till your current state is for Him to find a place in you, to manifest fully His glory, life and authority.

It is the fullness of God in us that enables us bear much fruit for God through life and authority.

It is how much we sacrifice for God to download His fullness in us His glory will be revealed and made manifest. We must die to ourselves and remain in the vine to be filled with the life of God, for without His power and authority birthed in us from His life, we'll bear little or no fruit.

We aren't called by our se, we were chosen by grace to partake as functionaries in God's Kingdom, repentance itself is a mystery let alone to God, as I once said, it's like a jar to be filled with water (the word), a jar can be filled to the brim, but man can decide to empty his jar totally, halfway or let it overflow. The one who let's his jar overflow is he who is called into repentance to strive, fight and attain salvation as a ticket. It is after salvation he is then ushered to become a functionary by the holy ghost. The holy spirit in us is like an ID. We should know one can be a citizen of heaven but not a functionary of God's Kingdom.

When a man has obeyed all obedience and has died fully enough to birth life and bear fruit through sacrifice. It is by grace a man is ordained to function fully in his ordination, still there are sacrifices made. How much we die to birth life will usher us into the grace to be sent forth to complete fully God's purpose in our lives, else we'll walk in it but not to complete. Only men who has died enough to harness life and are sent forth to complete God's project in their lives for His Kingdom can truly say; " it is finished."

When a man falls, he has lost power. However, every process of his salvation and every guide and chiseling by the holy spirit is designed to fan the restoration of the kingdom in him in power and authority. It is the power he's fanned, he operates in to gain authority in God's kingdom, because God's Kingdom cannot advance further without authority. Every children of God has power, but it turns out we have few men of high ranking status in the spirit realm, that's why the advance of darkness spreads so rapidly, because men failed to arise into men of high caliber for God's kingdom.

It's time we arise and restore the times eaten up by the spirit of sin, for the manifestation of God in our lives.

Strategic Government Of The Spirit Of Worldliness

The spirit of the world is one of the branches of the devil's government he invest much and give authority to hinder and trap men from accepting and manifesting God. If you can discern, you'll find that the atmosphere of the world today is heavily charged with a thick cloud of darkness birthed mainly from worldliness. One could then define worldliness in spiritual terms as the main cause of pollution hindering the present of God on earth.

Everywhere you go, there's nowhere you'll go you won't find worldliness, especially in the cities. Sin can be found hidden in the hearts of men, therefore it is not easily contagious (acquired.) However, worldliness, worldliness really is a contagious form of darkness, it doesn't only resides in a man, it is released.

All a spirit of the world does is whisper in the hearts of men and such men will serve as mediums, orchestrated by that spirit of worldliness to fuel the spirit of sin in them. In other words, the spirit of the world and of sin are integrated in a symbiosis relation. Worldliness fuel sin and sin engulfs the heart of a man keeping him bound deeper in utter darkness.

A man might have not fallen prey of sin because he's weak, yes, he is weak but, rather it might be, because his neighbor partook in worldliness serving as it's functionary to fuel the spirit of sin in his neighbor with worldliness, causing his fall. The one who served as a medium of worldliness just by the song he played, unknowingly to him, has killed a man. His condemnation for eternity will be great because, he served as a functionary to bring death to a man's heart. The ungodly songs you play, movies you circulate, activities, parties, all these charges the atmosphere with darkness, giving the spirit of the world much authority over a territory, causing men to bend easily to the will of sin.

In the past I do tell my old roommate time this;

" Do you no that being a sinner living with a child of God is a terrible situation to find yourself in? Because, you, an ungodly man, your every activity is of darkness which war against the heart of the believer, and so the believer has to shield his heart at all times through ceaseless prayers for some unnecessary battle, frustrating him. Your judgement will be great because, you tried to cause a child of God to falter." So, I do tell him.

In this message, we'll emphasize more on the spirit of worldliness, some of it's common form and how to get out of it. I once preached some time ago that; one must first be free for sin to be filled with the holy spirit so he can be delivered. But one must have knowledge of the spirit of worldliness to Increase his salvation processing because, it's one of the main stigma that hinders salvation.

The holy spirit will reveal some of the strategy the devil has used in veiling the hearts of men from knowing the cause of their backsliding from time to time no matter how much they accept Jesus. Yes, falling is as a result of lack of faithfulness, but there's is an urgency in the kingdom, and so will be accelerating salvation processing in men, please do well to keep up. If your heart can be free for the holy spirit to seal these words in you, then attaining salvation won't take long in you.

It's one thing to spend time in the word and also in prayers to secure the life of God in you. No one can truly be delivered from captivity if he's not filled with strength which comes from the life he has absorbed to his being through the word life to break free. For a man to be fully delivered, he must be revealed by the holy spirit, the other branch of the devil's government keeping him bound, " the spirit of worldliness." This can only be revealed to those who have been growing and are being filled gradually by the holy spirit or if you're been taught, as it has been made known to you now.

Worldliness is a spirit, just as there is also a spirit of sin and of flesh, it is a government branched into two dimensions;

- fueling the spirit of sin in a man's heart and,
- as a spirit, hindering the manifestation of God in a man. Here it doesn't fuel or causes sin, but hinders.

For some of you, you're the ones who killed yourself, you're the one who killed the holy spirit whispering to you. It's not that you don't desire the fullness of Christ, you want to, but you just can't, because any time such desire comes, any time you desire to repent or when you do, that's the time you venture into the worldliness, you're being trapped and enslaved by the government of the spirit of the world which corrupts the heart. Don't kill the seed of God sown in your heart.

Many has received God's seed (word,) but when they do or anytime they are to nature it to grow into a tree bearing fruits of the spirit, that's the time they venture into worldliness by listening to worldly songs, after hours of praying, singing spiritual songs, study the word, then you dissolve it all by few minutes of going back to the world. That worldly song you played or whatever worldliness you engage your heart, dampens all the life of God you've harnessed for the spirit of Christ in you to feed on. You've built and you've grown God's seed in you to a seedling, but you used your own hands to destroy and reduce what you've gotten to nothing, and therefore you begin to experience stunted growth, rising and falling, you spout now, you wither the next.

Meanwhile, what you fail to realize is that; salvation is a building process, it doesn't just happen at once, like boom! Well at times, it can be imposed on you through impartation from an anointed man of God if your heart is open. He transfers cultivated life, giving you a solid foundation in Christ, but still you have to maintain what has been given. And the Lord said;

" my people perish because they lack wisdom,"

The reason why many sees worldliness as normal is because, their hearts are still veiled and so they lack knowledge of it. It takes the filling of the holy spirit to discern the spirit of worldliness is of evil. That's why a born again can fall into sin, because salvation is a building process and if he doesn't grow rapidly to be filled with the holy spirit, he'll fail to discern the spirits of worldliness in his life. He'll fall when the world has fueled the spirit of sin in him to manifestation. Even if it didn't cause the eruption of a residing sin in him, still he's glorifying a spirit not of God and that's called Idolatry.

You can deceive yourself all you want, switch from X-rated to sad songs, blues, whatever genre there is, it is still worldliness. As long as the spirit communicated from the heart of the musician is of evil, if the heart of the musician is not of God, still, it is worldliness. As long as the heart of the singer is not of God he'll communicate a spirit of corruption.

A time will come when you're being filled with the holy spirit then, you wouldn't even like being where there is worldliness, because a spirit projected would want to breach your heart, it'll be a war and to avoid unnecessary warfare you'll have to restrict yourself mostly from the presence of men and shut yourself in with God. In my case I had to buy a headset, because of the environment I currently found myself in, I do carry it along as a friend, I'm not saying you should, every one is different.

That sin you're struggling so hard to overcome, you won't come out of it unless, you cut yourself off from every worldliness, unless you grow in the word at a rapid rate and secure your heart by prayers, faster than the rate at which sin grows in you. Except the substance word fills your heart to grow the spirit of Christ in you, increasing the rate at which your foundation in Christ is being laid faster than the rate at which the spirit of sin is fueled in you, you won't come out of it.

You must accelerate the reaction rate of the catalyst for salvation and decelerate drastically the reaction rate of the catalyst for sin. It's not that Jesus can't save, oh yes, He has already paid the price, you just have to let him. He has called you, now let Him by your dwelling in the presence.

We've have suffered, we have gone through the long process and we now, are revealing unto you what will quicken your salvation process, what we bring is life. We've once struggled to get out of sin and in our strife after accepting Jesus as Lord, we rose and fell several times, our foundation were destroyed severally, why? Because, we lacked knowledge of that which hinders and that which accelerates our growth, we weren't taught by men, rather we grew to be filled, we were filled with the holy ghost to be taught worldliness is a spirit and it is sin and aggravates sin also.

Even so, as we grew in Christ at a medium to fast pace, we were hindered, not destroyed, we were hindered by the spirit of worldliness until the day of our filling of the holy spirit came, until we've obeyed and died to ourselves, spending time in the word, securing the word substance in our heart with prayers so we can be filled, only then, the holy spirit grew and came alive in us. He spoke to our hearts saying; " leave worldliness."

As we obeyed, He detached us, He revealed unto us our dead weights and we detached from them. Some of us who were stubborn like me, He had to deal with us physically, we lost physical thing (mediums of worldliness) worth money for our salvation. Until you're free from the spirit of worldliness, until you're free from it's government you can not attain salvation because, salvation for a man born again is; his deliverance through the word, by the holy spirit, from every spirit of sin and worldliness.

What is it that hinders you? The reason you find it hard is not only because of sin, it is the spirit of worldliness, and this spirit can express its government through diverse mediums, the hearts of men, songs, fashion, parties, life itself (issues of life.)

Men are easily drawn to worldliness, because of his fallen state. Being already under the government of sin through birth, we are subjected under the government of a fallen world. The only way to escape this government is by accepting the government of Jesus.

The government of the world only functions in the hearts of those caring its spirit. The government of the world actually is a principality, lower ranking demons function under principalities, that's why even if you cast out a demon, or even if men give their lives to Christ still, the principalities still remains and have influence in the hearts of men, because they are high ranking entities of darkness that functions in high level authority, you can't cast them out, they're always there, you can only shift the scale of authority balance, a truce or come out of the government through Jesus.

We are originally bound to the world because of our fallen nature, the spirit of sin, the spirit of world and of flesh lies in us. The flesh contaminated, begat the corruption of our pure soul sent to the earth realm. That's why a little child can be bound to the world awaiting manifestation, because the spirit lies in him. Well, the little one still is qualified for heaven because, he hasn't gotten the heart to decide being born again or not. However, you can impose the spirit of Christ in that child by training and building him in Christ Jesus.

When the principalities projects worldliness from the heavens down to the earth, those who have properties of the spirit of worldliness in them, their hearts will be synchronized and align with the energy frequency sent by the principalities of worldliness to engage in such act by fueling the spirit in them, keeping them bound deeper in sin. it's more like Pied Piper of Hamelin, the mind controlling flute player.

As men yield to worldliness, they also raise offerings to the principalities making the cloud of darkness thicker. The thicker the cloud, the more men are bound until that dark cloud is obliterated by light. More light bearers must be raised, this is why we die to ourselves that through us God will win souls.

As long as you have the spirit of sin and your heart is being bombarded with worldliness, it'll will resonate with the spirit in you, uncontrollably you'll find yourself in the act. So also, if you're under the government of God, you'll hear the word of God and uncontrollably you'll hunger to hear more. In other words, those bound by worldliness are like zombies controlled by a spirit, still the zombie can decide to change government if he's frequently bombarded with a frequency from God, God's word. It is the bombardment of life packed in His word that brings life into the walking dead.

This is why the heavens of the earth realm is charged mainly with worldliness, it's like a string used in controlling the hearts of men and a source also to fuel the spirit of sin. Every worldly song you listen to keeps you bound deeper in sin. Therefore, it's not because men were in sin rather, it is because, they chose to fuel the spirit of sin in them more with the spirit generated through worldliness. Through mediums of worldliness like songs, movies, whatever medium, spirits of sin like lust can be communicated to the hearts of men.

For instance; if you're a regular to worldly songs carrying the spirit of lust, you'll fuel that spirit of lust in you making it hard for repentance. You now see why we have technologies like the televisions, internet, and so on. They were originally meant for the gospel but the devil has influenced the wisdom of men with evil for his own kingdom.

Proverb 22:6

"Train up a child in the way he should go; even when he is old he will not depart from it."

I do thank God for my mother, she'd always play worship songs, she does it so often it gets me upset all the time when I was little, but now I see the results of it. Some parents are the ones who served as mediums, keeping their children bound to sin because they fuel the spirit of sin in that child, this makes it hard for God to reconstruct that child when his time comes to be used. Now that the spirit of sin has grown in that child, he suffers more than he should to break out of sin, spending more time in the word to rapidly feed God's spirit in him and securing it with perpetual prayers because, the spirit has dealt lots of damages. He'll have to defend himself from temptation, until the holy spirit has grown to take complete government over his life.

I do wonder why people play Christian songs only on a Sunday when their heart still is filled with darkness, I just can't understand, I don't just..., no matter how hard I try, it's a mystery to me. Even while I was still in sin I can't recall myself doing such. Do they do this to bribe God or men? Men of the world really are a mystery to us children of God, they are like aliens, a new course of study.

After you've done all that filling your heart with the word through gospel songs, you've generated fuel to hinder you a little from sin in order to bring you to repentance. What this does actually is; every word you hear is a filling in your heart with the water of life, but a little venturing into worldliness will wash it all away on a Monday or next minute you decide to venture into worldliness by play a worldly song for example. The hearts of men really is a mystery, they're the cause of their living in sin, they really are.

You don't know every gospel song, every word of God captured by your heart is a fuel to your spirit man in order to restore you unto Jesus. Immediately the cup is full, it births repentance, that's why at times you don't know how, you just made up your mind you want to repent from your evil ways because, the cup has been filled to overflow, don't contaminate it.

Any time you find yourself fallen to lust even while you're trying hard to get out, you begin to wonder, why? But, you're not aware it's because you yield your heart to the government of a spirit that fueled and aggravated the spirit of lust in you. And so, whenever you fall, it's not necessarily you're not try to come out if it, it's not because you don't study the word and engage in prayers, it's because you yield not to the government of God, why not detach, you can't serve two masters.

This world was handed over to the devil when man fell, we literally handed it over to him and so, he governs and strategize. I won't give glory to the devil; I did tell my friend the devil has power and then, he began rebuking me. I laughed and said,

" who told you he doesn't have authority?"

The same way he has authority right from his creation, so also he has wisdom to strategize.

" If he doesn't, why then are men still in sin?" I said.

Check the world today, and you'll see the most contagious sin is lust, sexual Immorality masturbation, fornication, adultery, do I need to say " gay " that's also fornication. All other sin doesn't profit man much in the flesh, but to a man in sin lust really does. And so, for the devil to fuel his spirit to keep men tightly bound under this government; he charges the atmosphere with worldliness through songs, movies which communicates such spirit.

Most of the media today are not only worldly but, are filled with lustful content to communicate the spirit of lust unto the hearts of men, there by expanding the kingdom of darkness. The more men sin, the more offerings are raised to invoke the spirit of sin more in their lives and territories.

Worldliness can be communicated also through fashion which also births lust. People will say it doesn't matter how you dress, of course it does matter. It'll be shocking to the harlots of old to see how we dress today, because even in the time of the law, harlots do cover their faces with veils, but now even a mother who isn't a prostitute dresses as one. The state of your heart will communicate the spirit in you through your dressing, causing others to fall, you then, become a functionary of the government of both the world and sin.

Fashion itself is a merchandise of the queen of Babylon, that's why the merchants of the earth, through her has gotten rich, because the hearts of men are corrupted and they desire only corrupted things. When a new merchandise gets out, a few is released to the market mainly as test subjects to see if the hearts of men will lust after them. If the spirit sees the desire of men are spiked then, there'll be a mass production for the ladies to wear, causing the weak to fall. All these are not just to make men fall, they render offerings to the spirit of lust, by the clothing worn, they render offerings to invoke more of the principalities of lust over that territory.

A lady's still an embodiment of lust if men still looks at her with a lustful heart vis-à-vis men. There was a day I was watching and i saw a young man well dressed for church and a lady was staring at him. When I saw this, I laughed within me because, the holy spirit told me he doesn't know dressing cannot cover sin. There is a communication between the spirit of lust in her and the spirit of just in him. You can cloth yourself but not the spirit, when you come across one with the same spirit, it'll just be like two colleague saying, " hey, what up!" Whereas you're going to church, you can deceive men but not spirits, you're still bound, come out of your sin.

Sundays seems to be the day the spirit of lust is expressed more in men, it like a red carpet day for fashions designed by spiritual entities of lust.

All the government of darkness does is create different branches of government and then, place a spirit in charge over them. Then, you choose which spirit to follow. In the end, it's still the same head spirit, the devil.

Seems we're talking too far, let's talk the way out rather than giving instances . We must come back to our sense and fix our heart else, if we don't, we'll have no way of turning back.

All these and many more fuels the spirit of sin in us. it's like filling a cup, once the cup is full it'll tip over and contaminate the heart. Then, you'll have to start all over by emptying your heart of all evil. It'll make you stagnant, rising and falling, hindering your salvation and then hindering the manifestation of God in your life.

Don't fuel the spirit of sin into a giant rather, fuel the spirit of Christ with the word, so He can grow to dethrone the spirit of sin in you. Jesus has all authority but, He won't give you salvation if you don't give Him the authorization. The more you spend time in the word, how much God's word dominates your heart will determine how much He'll act in you, through His word, by His spirit to birth salvation in you.

So whenever you fall, trace your origin, what is it you cultivated that fueled that spirit of sin in you, it's not all about falling, there is a fuel.

You must first make the decision, you can't do anything without making the first move, it is your righteousness that gives Jesus authorization to dwell in your heart. When you've received Him then, you'll have to die to yourself and the world, dwelling in the word and prayers. It is the life harness through God's word, secured through prayers that triggers the growth of God's spirit in us to overcome sin and world. As we continue to fill out heart with His life, in obedience, the holy spirit grows in us to gain dominance over spirits of darkness.

When we are filled, we are then fully subjected to the government of the holy ghost. Such a man who is subjected to the government of the holy ghost can no longer sin, neither can he be swayed by the world anymore or anything not of God because. This is when a man begins to desire more of God, because his heart has been fine tuned to the very nature of God.

It's time to detach, ask the Lord to erase and deliver you from every worldliness, when next time you want to pray to overcome sin pray also for the holy spirit to search your heart and reveal any form of worldliness.

However, one cannot overcome worldliness if he's not yet filled, you must be filled with the holy spirit. We humans are driven by spirits, and it is the spirit we feed more that'll gain much dominance over us, driving us. You think what you're doing are your own will, what you don't know is that they're being manipulated by the whispers of spirits you gave authorization. In other words; you're merely a puppet. Whatever you do is because, you let a spirit, be it of sin or of the world. The prayer life of a child of God, his nature to dwell on the presence, living a holy life is as a result of the spirit of God he yield his heart to.

The holy spirit had to deal with the hearts of men on the basis of the word, because many, so many have been lost. Many do think they're on the right path but, are still bound to certain spirits not of God, they think it normal because, they lack the holy spirit and worldliness is one of the main defect. That's why the holy spirit wants us to birth more life in the area of worldliness.

For those of us who are filled with the holy ghost and have been invested the Kingdom, worldliness doesn't lead us to sin, there's a difference. For men of the kingdom, there lies worldliness that hinders the move of God in their life which they have to deal with, you don't sanctify this one off your heart, it is a detachment from the systems of the world. For a kingdom man, you'll see another branch of the government of worldliness not of sin but of hindrances.

We'll only dwell on the basis, when an atmosphere is charged with worldliness, or when the heart of a kingdom man is bombarded with worldliness through mediums like songs, movies, video games, irrelevant activities of the world not profitable unto God and his Intimacy with God. All these are distractions, hindrances that eats away our time with God.

The reason we can't hear God is because our hearts are too occupied and also, we're too far off from Him and the reason we became even more farther is because, we spend less time with Him than we spend in the world. If only you can listen to the holy spirit, yielding to His government and detaching your heart gradually from the world then, you'll discover a new dimension of God in your life, I tell you.

Only men who have been separated from the world are fit for God's kingdom government, they are those whom God is interested in. It takes sacrifices to detach from the world, you can't pray it out, you can pray your way out in the first phase when you were newly born again or in sin, but here it's on sacrifice. You must leave all that hinders, if you want to become of relevant in God's Kingdom.

That's why we isolate ourselves and live a quiet life minding our own business, not that we hate men, but because, we are drawn and subjected to a government of the holy ghost who desires us to be restored back to God. In this path, we can't afford to turn back else, we'll amount to so little.

As you detach from the world, In you the very nature of God begins to manifest in new dimensions, you become more like God. A time came when I could no longer listen to worldly songs even for a minute, it was as if my heart was about been torn apart, there was a serious rejection by the government of the holy spirit. Then, a time came when I didn't like staying with men, because of their worldliness, it makes it difficult for the heart to meditate on God because, of the war going on between light and dark.

Meditation draws us closer to God, it is intimacy, it is communion, it is koinonia, and no strange and foreign entities of darkness is allowed to interfere else, there'll be hindrances. That's why we stay away from men. For me it became so much i had to improvise by getting a headset, men do think I got it for pleasure, but they did know i got it because of the spirit of worldliness in them. There was a time also, when I gained rank in authority, i had to pray to the spirit of worldliness subdued in my territory and the Lord gave me victory.

If you come in a territory and the atmosphere is charged with worldliness, if you are always exposed to it, it causes interferences. And for those who served as mediums of worldliness, their judgement will be greater for try to cause a man to fall, it's better you were not born, don't be a medium. The life and presence of every child of God will serve as a judgement to every man who served as a medium of worldliness because, their life is a channel of a dark spirit that frustrate the heart of a child of God unnecessarily through your worldliness, it distort the heart. Though we are frustrated by the ungodly things we see and hear, but God knows how to deliver His righteous ones.

At times when gaming, you meditate in your heart, you commune with God. Now, it's not bad playing games for sure but, there is a level of intimacy you'll attain in God where the holy spirit will make it a burden in your heart for you to drop it. When next you pick up a game to play, you'll find you heart the negative feed back of gaming, because it is of the world, a spirit is being transferred that'll war against your heart making it difficult for you to meditate on the Lord because, a spirit has caused an interference.

The holy spirit will whisper " detachment " to your heart, it's not that the game was bad, but for a better Intimacy with God, you have to. And it also eats away our time to invest life for the kingdom because, then your time will be wasted investing in worldliness, pleasure. At time he'll wait for you to finish downloading seasons of a seasonal movie and then, your heart will be struck with a burden to detach from it.

If you fail to detach, you've not harmed God, you've harmed yourself because, God's manifestation in your life will be hindered, limited and if possible you'll be cut off completely because, of one disobedience that's not sinful. You can disobey God and He'll forgive you, but not the holy spirit, He's very strict. If he finds you unyielding, not easy to break, He'll halt or leave his investment in you and find someone else. Your Minas might be taken and given to one who is serious.

You must become a man of sacrifice, ready to let go of anything for the sake of the kingdom. Jesus said;
Mark 20:29-30

" Truly I say to you, there is no one who has left house or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or farms, for My sake and for the gospel's sake, but that he will receive a hundred times as much now in the present age, houses and brothers and sisters and mothers and children and farms, along with persecutions; and in the age to come, eternal life."

You'll can't lose things of this world and not gain greater in eternity, after all this earth realm is just a lie, vanity, an investment ground. Invest in God's kingdom, that's where our reality lies. If you fail to be a man of sacrifice, if you cease as a functionary in God's kingdom, you'll not be chilsed enough to become a precious stone in God's kingdom, making you of little worth for all eternity.

We should fill out heart with the things of God in spiritual songs, prayers and the word, detaching from the world to become more intimate with God.

Salvation Processing

The reason why many do fall is because they're not yet saved, when a man has attained salvation, it becomes hard or he can never again fall back to sin because, he has been totally subjected under the government of a spirit, the government of the Christ. Even if he does chooses to fall back into the arms of sin, or no matter how the evil one manipulates and orchestrate, the government of the holy spirit over such a man will restrict him, he becomes like a prisoner of the holy spirit, bound to do God's will.

Unless, he wills himself to struggle out of the government of the holy spirit, he'll then, be released into darkness. Such a man is a fool, the greatest of the greatest, he doesn't know how rare and valuable his purchase was until he has lost it all completely, never to come back. If a man was restored unto Jesus, his heart becomes empty and he is given the spirit of Christ. However, if he refuses to fill his heart by the spirit of Christ in him with the properties of God, then, the spirit of sin will come back with more reinforcement stronger than he is to get back their properties lying within. It is the properties of sin left in man's heart that draws the spirit of sin back in to dwell, he must sanctifies his heart and get rid of them.

That's why we don't joke with repentance, you don't rise and fall and say; " eh.. Jesus will forgive," you're not only joking with your salvation, you're joking with your eternal future with God.

Salvation lies at the end, it is given only to those who've endured the heat to stand unshaken in Jesus. Your foundation must be tried In the fire, if it is made of straw you'll be burnt to ashes but, If it is made of fine precious stones then, you'll stand the test of time, ready to be used, ready to be built into the kingdom of God. Those who were burnt to ashes, lacked the word because, the word is what enhance the quality and texture of our foundation, material. We are material to be used as part of God's kingdom building.

When one comes to repentance, God's seed is been sown in his heart as a deposit. This seed, God's word, gives him the holy spirit, the comforter, guide and teacher. For a born again;

-As a comforter; he encourages of where the Lord is taking us.

- As a teacher; He teaches us God's word in new dimensions based on our growth, it's like being in a school, you'll only be taught in accordance to how much you've grown. We should learn to listen to him because, not everything he says is written in the word. I've seen a few who've neglected the holy spirit because, they thought God is restricted only to the Bible, I mean, is God a programmed robot that he can't talk beyond what is His written word? Still, we should grow to be able to discern when He is whispering or speaking to our hearts.
- As a guide; He guides us in what to let go off, what to do to rapidly boost our relationship with God. He cares more about our relationship with God, that's why He's here.

The holy spirit in us also, is our recognition, our ID as God's children. However, if the seed falls to the ground and fails to germinate in our hearts, If it isn't nurtured, it'll wither and decay, bringing death. This is why many do rise and fall, because they fail to nurture God's seed sown in them to become deep rooted in their heart. One who spends time nurturing his seed will have God's word deep rooted making it hard for the evil one to uproot and in time it'll grow bearing fruits of the spirit, it is when he bears fruits he then, can be identified by spirit entities as a child of God. You can't discern some trees from afar unless you identify the edible and colorful fruit.

You must nurture God's seed through His word and safe guard it by prayers, God doesn't just plants it and then you'll go relax, no. It's more like the parable of the sower. Some did nurture their seed, they germinated but they withered and died at the rise of temptation, trial, persecution, the world, issues of life and the flesh because, they have no vision for the kingdom they couldn't see beyond the vistas of salvation, they only cared about themselves and not about their relationship with God. Their relationship with God was a selfish one, a relationship that demands only from God.

Repentance isn't necessarily your assurance for the kingdom of heaven, if you do, think again. A man can repent a thousand time but, salvation is once, only a fool would want to " deliberately " fall after being saved, even scripture recorded those who fell after salvation as anti Christ,

" they were once amongst us."

Salvation is achieved after a war well fought, it is not by grace. Salvation, you must fight to earn it, it's not given to the unfaithful and lazy, it is earned on a hard day's work. Those who refuse to grow and still rely only on grace might eventually not venture into the kingdom of heaven. Through repentance, the spirit of Christ is restored, but if the holy spirit dies (leaves), you'll not be fit to enter into heaven.

Salvation firstly, is a process to determine those who are qualified to rule and reign with God for eternity. It is given to man to will and if Lucifer fell, then, man also can ruin God's kingdom, now God wouldn't want that, and so He placed us here in the earth realm first, for a Kingdom mandate to be fulfilled and then to winnow those who aren't fit for His kingdom, those who'll eventually turn out like Lucifer.

So, If you eventually fall to sin, (which i pray your shouldn't) don't go blaming it on the devil, it's a revelation that you'd turn out just as the rebellious angels once did if you were originally placed in heaven. If man was created without a salvation process in place to try them after receiving Jesus, there would have been another war in heaven. Now don't say God is wicked because of your laziness, He is just. God didn't made robots, we must be tried for our hearts to be revealed and so, He sacrificed for us a God, His first son, Jesus, to restore us through salvation after we've passed the trial phase to reveal our heart.

In summary, man fell and God knew before time began that man would fall and so, Jesus was the lamb that was slain for the salvation of man even before the dawn of time, to restore the fallen man so he can be tried and after been tried and his heart revealed right, God will select few out of the saved and invest much in them for His kingdom establishment. Now don't say God is wicked, He's just, you're the one who's wicked for faltering because, everything has been given you.

Salvation is given only to those who have endured and carried their cross to the end. The reward for salvation is the out pouring of the holy spirit to those who have overcome sin, so that God can begin to walk with them. God does not work on faulty foundations. Salvation is that basis, upon which a man becomes subjected under the government of Jesus to become filled with the holy spirit so God can begin working with him. Therefore, salvation is not necessarily about being saved, it's a foundation for God's kingdom mandate to be fulfilled in a man.

Before God can begin working in a man, every thick cloud of darkness must be obliterated with light, and every cords of darkness broken. Salvation doesn't only delivers from sin and worldliness, but also from the curses of sin and all that has a man bound, be it ancestral, foundational or familiar spirits, whatever it may be. All these hinders God's move in a man's life and salvation processing is what erases them through prayers weighted with life (God's word.)

The fall of man added so many unnecessary death that hinders the move in God in man and for these to be broken off, every man must undergo the salvation processing, a deliverance process through the word (power of God) and in prayers.

Untill a man is delivered from sin, worldliness and cords of darkness that brings death, God can't work with him. So when you walk with Jesus in obedience, becoming more intimate with Him through His word and in prayers, when you see deliverance taking place, deliverance from sin and it's curses, bondages of darkness, spiritual death and so on, don't just rejoice you're being set free, know this then, that there's an activation of life in you and where there's life, death no longer dwells. It's natural, death and life can't coexist.

The absence of death, build the filling up of God's life in us without hindrances, naturally you'll have ravenous hunger for the word to harness more of God's life. God's life in us is everything, we can't do without it, the more it fills us, the more we become like Him in His very nature. If you pray all the time and lack the word (God's life) know you've been wasting too much effort, for it is God's life that erases darkness.

How much God's life dominates your heart will affect your every being, even your prayer life because, prayer is intimacy with God and it is also a transport system to carry God's life unto Him. How much life you've harnessed will determine how much God will be interested in what your heart is saying. He knows your heart already, you only need prayer to transport His life in you to break through the earth realm unto His throne. That's why a sinner can't be heard by God because, he communicates death. Now that you're saved, begin to fill your heart with life because, you just came out of death, you must be replenished with life else, you'll be like an experiment in the hands of the devil, not to sin but to frustration. You need more of God's life to walk with Him in faith and to overcome at all time.

The fullness of life birthed in us, the fullness of the holy spirit, is a credential for God's project to begin in our lives. Being filled of the holy spirit is like having a certificate which certifies our validity, our authenticity of a solid foundation in which God's kingdom will be rested.

Salvation processing also in terms of relationship, is a phase that builds a deep level of Intimacy with the Father. God loves His own but, we should be aware now, that God doesn't love all equally, He loves those more who loves Him more. To God, love transmitted by mortal men aren't in emotions rather, they're expressed as sacrifices. We must carry our cross daily, overcoming temptations, persecutions, trials to get to the end. Everyday in the life of a child of God, are days of death, death at the cross, the more you choose to die to become more intimate with God so that your life can express more of Him, and for Him to invest more in you, the bigger and heavier your cross.

If your life as a child of God counted thirty years in the realm of time, (earth realm) it means you carried diverse weightiness of cross numbering an estimate of ten thousand, nine hundred and fifty crosses. However, it's not the number of cross carried or length of life lived in time, it is the weightiness of the cross carried and life harnessed that'll determine our reward in heaven. So, therefore, one can live thirty years as a child of God but, another who lived just few months a child of God can be greater than he who lived thirty years.

God knows all things, He's omniscience, but the hearts of men is not fixed, God has to see. Those who overcome even under the weightiness of the cross truly loves much, God loves a man more who has sacrificed much for Him.

Salvation as a process of righteousness; righteousness is our effort and every man saved at the end will be judged, entrusted the kingdom and rewarded according to the righteousness of his heart. The reason why God walks with certain men is not merely by grace, it's because, during their salvation process they were more righteous than the few. They were more righteous to put much effort for the holy spirit to help them build Intimacy with God. You know, the holy spirit helps us in our righteousness and He also, helps us in our holiness. However, still, He needs our authorization to function in us, our effort applied to spend time in the presence will determine how much He'll be interested and work in us though God's word.

Your righteousness will trigger a new dimensions in God to open up to you when you're filled. In other words, salvation processing is not about being saved, it is a test run to reveal the hearts of men, in other for God to know those whom He'll invest his kingdom and for you to become aware of it. It's like a selection phase of men who'll be of high ranking value in God's kingdom

The man who has much value the devil will try to bid more for his soul, when a man of value is seen God also will bid more to secure his salvation.

Salvation processing to select men of high ranking value for the fulfillment of God's kingdom mandate is like this;

It's like a set of slaves, we really are slaves to spirit entities. You know, when slaves are to be purchased in times of old, they'll be brought out and stripped of their clothing to reveal those of high value, those who are well built, healthy, durable. They'll be auctioned to reveal those who have greater worth, their jaws will be checked, muscles, stature, every fiber of their being will be checked for defaults.

Now, a bidder wouldn't want to buy a commodity of poor quality else, his invest on him will be a waste. Out of the slaves brought out, those of greater worth will be purchased, out of the many, few will be purchased of greater value. There'll be an auction and the highest bidder will get the slave of great worth. So it is with our salvation processing.

In our salvation processing, we are like slaves ready to be purchased and invested God's kingdom. Now, how much we lived in righteousness will be revealed, how much righteousness we put in support by the holy spirit to become more intimate with God will be revealed and judged to determine our worth. God's looking for edible men, slaves who can carry the weight of His kingdom on their shoulders without being weary, and if your foundation on salvation, your righteousness is found shaky, you'll be rejected or be of low value. That's why we must dwell more in the presence, pressing onward and seeing beyond the vistas of salvation, we must see the kingdom of God and not just the king of heaven.

For instance, ten slaves were brought out, these tens slaves all underwent salvation processing, in other words; they're all saved, but only few will be chosen to become functionaries of God's kingdom. There'll be an auction, God and the devil will be the only bidders in this slave auction. When the slaves are being checked and the ones with high value are identified, then the bidding will begin. Immediately the bidding is raised, God will do everything to get the slave of greater worth, the devil also, will try harder.

This is why a man will face greater temptations and trials he can bear during his salvation process because, it has been checked and identified he's of greater value and so, the devil will do everything to have him, so also. However, God will mostly win the bidding, because even the temptations and trials the devil throws to decline the worth of the slave, God will turn, in his life, to become spices to fuel his sacrifice, making him of even greater worth for His kingdom.

Although, ten were saved and brought into the Master's estate, only few out of the ten, if possible one or two, will be of much value and will be greatly rewarded when all is said and done. They'll be placed in charge of many.

Salvation also is a test run for the kingdom, to revealed the hearts of men, those who are fit to carry out God's kingdom mandate. Your faithfulness and love which is your sacrifice to attain salvation and to see beyond the vistas of salvation will determine how much God will invest in you. There's more to salvation than you think, it is a process, mainly for the kingdom, to refine and select those of great worth and value for the building of God's kingdom.

If you focus your vision only on salvation and not beyond, to build a deep level of Intimacy with God, if you fail to sacrifice to become more for God and not just for entering into the kingdom of heaven then, you've failed your salvation processing. Although you're saved but, you've failed to become a functionary or a functionary of great value in God's kingdom. Only men who dwells more in the presence, in the word and in prayers, with a burning desire to become a embodiment through which God can be expressed are truly qualified, and merited their salvation processing.

Now that you've known this, you must do everything to desire God more and build Intimacy with Him in your salvation process to become a priced and rare commodity. The devil will fight you hard but, in the end his temptations and pressure will serve as spices to make you of greater value, because you'll do well to build an even more deep level of Intimacy and overcome.

Don't let the devil cause you to rise and fall, it'll affect your quality as a slave, God is looking for slaves to be purchased and only the finest who stood unshaken will be bought for kingdom building purpose, the others will be bought, but have little to no value in the house of the master. This is why you see few men called by God, and many aren't, it's not because they were specifically chosen, it's because, they were the few who saw beyond the vistas of salvation and never faltered during their processing, but rather, chose to become more refined.

Salvation processing is a critical phase, where men born again are selected, auctioned like slaves. Your Intimacy level with God during your salvation process will determine how much God will invest His kingdom in you, don't joke with it.

Faith Processing

Faith is believing, faith is of man's heart, everyone has faith but, the faith of many are being corrupted. They have; faith in themselves, faith in man, faith in material things, faith in evil, spiritual entities not of God, so many corrupted faith.

However, faith to believe in the Lord Jesus is imposed through God's word and catalyzed by the holy spirit given when you accept to function under the authority in the name Jesus. It doesn't matter if you're a sinner or not, the name Jesus is like a mantle, a name given to our Lord that applies above all.

The moment you hear the name Jesus or the word of God in your heart, even in your sleep, the cords of your faith to believe is struck, but the question remains; what do you do with or what is the state of your heart at that critical moment? Faith to believe in the Lord Jesus is sown as a deposit right from our creation, that an appointed time you'll fully accept Jesus as Lord, by faith, to be restored from your fallen nature. But, if you continue in sin, your season of restoration will be delayed.

Faith to believe Jesus is Lord, this is what triggers our walk in faith because, faith is a process and from faith to faith we grow. However, one cannot believe if there isn't a faith seed sown in his heart, it is there, it has always been, it's just that it has been shrouded in darkness because, of the fallen state of man. We were once originally in God's likeness, it's just like a man who underwent transgenderization to be transformed in the image of a woman, although he does look like a woman and has all the components of a woman but, still, his heart isn't and can never be changed to that of a woman, he'll always reason as a man. His original nature can't be removed only cloaked with a lie.

The moment you hear God's word or when the word is being filled in you and the meter of repentance is full, your faith to accept Jesus as Lord is triggered. It is a beginning faith that overpowers even the strongest of the devils, you might not have faith weighted with life to cast out a demon, but a faith to believe in the name Jesus can overpower any demon, even Lucifer himself, you just have to will it when the time comes. No one can believe Jesus is Lord if the time isn't come, that's why accepting Him is by grace.

In a man's life there are diverse intervals, seasons and times he had to accept Jesus by faith. It is this faith that puts you under the government of our Lord Jesus, sheltered in the mantle of His name given, to safe guard your place in Him and also, to be guided to grow His spirit in you to maturity, attaining salvation and being filled with the holy spirit to live in the likeness of God.

if you fail to trigger faith at the Kairos time (decisive moment), you'll miss salvation. Grace for repentance comes in seasons, it isn't always there, it's a mystery. It comes like a season, your will to discern the time of the anointing to accept Jesus will trigger you into a relationship with Him, shielded in the authority of the government of Christ. if you lose that season, you'll have to wait it out living deeply and heavily bound in sin, and if your grace finishes, then your life on earth is over. Everyone has the same grace but, how much you use it will determine.

A man must be bombarded with life, carried in packets through the word to activate this faith to believe and accept Jesus as Lord. From then, every word he hears is not a waste even if it's just a word, as long as it carries life they're waters of life that fills his heart. Once the jar is filled, once the required volume is attained for repentance to accept Jesus as Lord then, he'll come to repentance through the word, by faith, acting upon the word he has received.

Yet, salvation isn't attained, he has to grow under the government of Christ to attain salvation. This is why the devil will fight you at all time not to confess Jesus from heart, because it is a change of government, it'll give him a hard time to cause you fall. It's just like trying to break out a transferred prisoner who was conveyed overseas and placed in tight security. The only thing the prisoner has to do is not make contact with the embodiments of evil that comes visiting, else they'll sell out his location.

Faith is a gift from God, however, through processing, it is cultivated. God's word dominating our heart will determine the worth of our faith, it is the word out of our mouth that releases the power of God by faith, built in our heart. Faith is within, not without, it is within your heart, words aren't faith, they're only mediums used to convey and express our faith and also to deliver life with power, propelled and released by faith in our heart. There are many children of God, not unbelievers, but children of God who confesses, make utterances but, lacking in faith. Faith is not in the words spoken as many believe our mouth is what makes things happen, yes, they're right in a way, but, rather, faith is from the heart, cultivated from the word of God to grow like a mustard seed.

We must cultivate faith in order to release it at a higher level. Let's get out of the old deception of the words of the mouth being the factor of faith because, of this many confesses without having faith, that is they live a life of sin and still confess blessings with their mouth, thinking God does listen, the devil uses it to keep ungodly men in check. Faith is a process and as it is being cultivated, it builds also intimacy with God.

Therefore, faith is more than getting God to get things done, it is a life pleasing to the Father, a faith much pleasing to the Father will not only have earthly results but, more importantly greater eternal value. How much do you spend to cultivate faith through the word and sacrifice to trust God's at all time?

Without faith you can not please God, the worth and value of your faith harnessed and cultivated through God's word will arise to Him a sacrifice of different fragrance value. How much does your incense please Him? Whereas, sacrifice is the greatest flavor for our faith to spice up our offerings unto God. Men live in the earth realm as mobile offerings, that's why your holy life lived is a living sacrifice unto God. If you're of the devil, you'll be also, a mobile altar of death, rendering thick clouds of darkness to give the devil much relevance on earth.

If the word of your mouth isn't from the source of faith in your heart (God's life,) it becomes meaningless and often times used by the devil against you to throw you far off from God. For example, the moment some begin to pray for blessings, that's when lack begins to arise even more, why? Because their words carries no life, and in the spiritual nothing is neutral, so the devil uses those words void of life to bring darkness. Go back to the word, harness life to boost your faith and you'll see the power of God in new dimensions released out of your mouth by faith.

Your words are merely transport mediums to express the faith within. Whereas a man of faith, that is; a man of the word mostly don't need to pray for blessings, because he carries the life of God and where there is life, there's blessings also. Still, a man's faith can be tried, he might be in lack, but as the Lord allows, not as the devil devised, but as God allows for His glory.

Your ability to believe God is working out the answer in times of trials, is as a result of faith built in you. Who gives you the conviction He's working out an answer, you? No, it's not your mentality, not human nature, but, rather it is the nature of God built in you through the word enabling you live a life of faith, trusting God. It's like God trusting God Himself because, His very nature now, is in you and the more you feed His spirit through His word then, God's nature capable of making all things possible begins to resonate with your heart to think God minded that all things are possible and all things are aligned for His glory to be revealed. You act in faith naturally as you build God's character in you through His word.

How much time you invest in sacrifice to harness life will determine your worth of faith. Faith also, is heavenly currency, and life harnessed from God's word also, functions as heavenly currency, you can refer it to a clearance card. The worth of life you've harnessed will determine how much you can access in heaven from the earth realm. Life (clearance card) then, can be converted into faith " heavenly currency." When you want to make heavenly purchase then, a kidney for example; it is the access you have through life which is then converted to faith (heavenly currency) to complete the transaction.

I call life a clearance card because, it doesn't reduce rather, it increases no matter what you want to access with the worth of life you have, you can have access to it without running out of heavenly cash. Faith is just a currency format to make purchase by believing. Life is the real currency (access card). However, life can only be deduced when there is sin because, sin is death and where death lies, life deduces, giving you less clearance or access and which when converted gives less faith (low currency).

You now see why we can't do without the word because, it is life and faith in dimensions of heavenly currency. And you see also, why the devil won't disturb your prayer life first, but will rather do everything to hinder you from dwelling in the word because, without life, even your prayer life is useless. It is faith that makes you believe God has answered, not because, He promised in His word but, because, His very nature has been built in you. See God's word more as life, it is the life absorbed that builds God's very nature in us to have faith.

When we talk of faith in relation to power, you'll know also, that everything depends on life (faith converted from God's life in us.) Your power to will and to do as a Christian rest on your faith, that is; how much worth of faith you have in store. That's why many are powerless, any little thing they run to men because, their heart is lacking in the word. With the little faith sown in us and our ability to cultivate it through the word and sacrifices also, as we undergo temptations and trials, trusting God without fainting, builds also, Intimacy with God, which increases our authority, building faith more in us.

How much intimacy we build, will determine also, our trust in God naturally, you can't really say you trust someone if you've not yet known Him well.

An average believer will pray to God for bread, a faith that demands, which is good but also wrong. The bread we Kingdom functionary pray for isn't physical bread, we don't need to pray for bread because, we have faith, and are aware that God always supply our physical needs just as He feeds the birds of the air and cloth the grasses of the field.

Matthew 6:26,30

" Look at the birds of the air, that they do not sow, nor reap nor gather into barns, and yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not worth much more than they?"

' But if God so clothes the grass of the field, which is alive today and tomorrow is thrown into the furnace, will He not much more clothe you? You of little faith."

Even the Lord's prayer we do pray taught by Jesus to His disciples wasn't talking about physical bread, He was talking about the word and God's kingdom. The Lord's prayer is a Kingdom prayer not a prayer for physical needs. We'll talk about this more by the help of the holy spirit as we go further in faith.

When you grow from faith to faith, you become bold naturally because, you now have in you the very nature of God. For instance, you might hear a gunshot and everyone will be gripped with fear and disperse immediately but, you'll notice your heart isn't gripped with fear find because, you've built faith and it acts in you naturally. One of the quality of God's nature is like a fierce lion and as you build intimacy with Him through His word, by faith, you'll activate that nature of Him in you, a fearless and fierce nature not to harm but for His kingdom.

It is your righteousness, your effort to dwell in the word that'll trigger the holy spirit, the spirit of righteousness to help you journey further to harness life from the word which births faith.

Let's Journey a little further into foundational faith before we go into the kingdom.

Ephesians 2:8-9

" For it is by God's grace you have been saved through faith, it is not the result of your own efforts, but God's gift, so that no one can boast about it."

Those who think salvation is by grace think again, you just can't continue in your fall and say you've attained salvation, salvation is deliverance, if you're still found falling into sin then, you're still bound. Every word of God is a filling in our to usher us into salvation or to manifest the glory of God, what have you done with the word you've been receiving? It's a question that'll be asked of you. Every word of God we receive to heart triggers and builds faith in us. It is by grace we're called to repentance by faith but, to attain salvation we need empowerment which comes from faith (God's seed) sown in us by grace, before time began.

Let's slow down a bit, faith sown in us to be cultivated in order to aid us as we journey to attain salvation, is given and sown in us by grace. Faith was inborn in us by God's spirit, however, it was shrouded in darkness because of our fallen nature. Faith however, sown in us by grace, which is triggered through the word we received to heart ushering us into the government of Christ Jesus through repentance, needs to be cultivated to attain salvation.

This cultivation of faith is a process as we grow from faith to faith. Repentance, which is then given by grace, brings us to the path in which we journey to attain salvation by our righteousness (effort applied) to feed God's spirit in us, which builds our faith in Him to attain salvation. It is God's gift given us, (faith) we build on as a foundation as we grow from faith to faith as a process, which strengthens us to overcome hurdles through the word by the holy spirit as we journey to the end where salvation lies.

Our righteousness to dwell in the presence does not rest only on us, it is supported by the holy spirit, (God's spirit of righteousness) in us because, if we rely on our own strength which is flesh, we'll falter. It is God's spirit given as a gift to those who have built His word in their heart, that'll strive with God's righteousness as a support to attain salvation. That at the end we shall not boast of ourselves but, rather giving glory to God, saying;

" No one who is born of God practices sin, because His seed abides in him; and he cannot sin, because he is born of God."

In summary, God's word is sown in us by grace which called us unto repentance (the government of Christ.) It is then, this seed sown in our heart we nurture through God's word by faith, by the spirit of righteousness, helping us in our weakness as we journey to the end where salvation lies.

We've been on the basis of the word as our foundation for a while now, whereas our main priority is the kingdom. We dwelt on the foundation because, many are lacking of it. How can you talk Kingdom when many haven't grown to accept the raw truth about the kingdom and their part to play. You must first secure a firm foundation on faith else, the gospel of the kingdom, you won't be able to bear the weight because, it deals more on sacrifice and without a solid foundation on faith, you can't sacrifice. And so Paul said;

1 Corinthians 3:2

" I gave you milk to drink, not solid food; for you were not yet able to receive it. Indeed, even now you are not yet able."

However, we must focus now on foundational building else, only few will be able to become Kingdom functionaries for God. You must first have a firm foundation, not just a firm foundation, your building must be in perpetual processing before you're given the kingdom. However, we must build faith in order to gain salvation first, and then faith to exist as a Kingdom functionary.

Proverb 21:25-26

" Lazy people who refuse to work are only killing themselves; all they do is think about what they would like to have. The righteous, however, can give and give generously."

Lazy people here in this context, refers to those born again Christians who aren't filled with the holy ghost to become functionaries of God's kingdom, they're those who settled only for salvation, or repentance. Although they're saved but, they refuse to journey much deeper in God to see beyond the vistas of salvation. These kind of people don't have the mind of the Father, they're not interested in the Father, only themselves and how they can escape hell, whereas it doesn't just end with salvation.

There's a place of deep intimacy with God where the vistas of our ordination will be unveiled before us to walk and function in, fulfilling God's true and eternal purpose for our lives. Only men who aren't lazy, men who dwell in the presence to seek more of God, find such a place in God. They're ready to give, (sacrifice) it all, not only their material things but, themselves unto God. Whereas, the lazy will remain children, and when they journey into eternity, they'll receive rewards as children. Every child has the right to shelter, food and clothing, but not inheritance and it's sad but, this'll be the fate of many children of God.

However, the righteous who aren't lazy but, chose to attain spiritual maturity, knowing the mind of the Father and walking as functionaries of His kingdom to fulfill His kingdom mandate, will receive the inheritance of the Father for all eternity. Those who chose to settle only for salvation caring not the mind of the Father will amount to nothing in God's Kingdom of heaven, they'll be ranked low and not recognized.

The lazy, thinks about only their selfish demands, what God can do for them, they dwell in a faith that receives, and so they lack spirit advancement, rankings, which makes them a prey to the devil because they're still attached to the flesh. Even if God blesses them because, they're weak, the devil still can invade. Their lives remain a constant struggle because, they lack spiritual bread.

Whereas, the righteous, those who know the mind of the Father, walk in a faith that demands sacrifice for the kingdom, for without sacrifice, the kingdom can't advance, and so they have faith to give unto God, they have faith to sacrifice it all generously for the kingdom. Great will not only be their reward on earth but, greater in the kingdom of God. Because, of their lives lived in sacrifice, they'll be ranked high amongst the Immortals, while the lazy will be ranked very low, although in heaven, still, they won't even find a place in the new Jerusalem.

Faith is of heart and God operates only through our heart, faith is now and your faith level now will determine how much God will invest in you. God uses your now, that is; your faith, " now " to see years into your future to determine if you're yet fit to fulfil his kingdom mandate. If you're not, He'll do everything to chisel you, so you fit into what he has made you for. This is the time you begin to face situations, events that seem bizarre and irrelevant to you, but what you don't know is that, God is chiseling you in preparation for a greater future with Him. If only you can discern and walk in alignment with the holy spirit to emerge refined.

All these happen because your future has been drawn from your faith " now." God knows that if you continue this way, your life will become irrelevant to Him and so, He reshapes you with trials. From your now (heart,) God will know if you'll fall in due time or be like the wise servant who invested his one Minas and got nine extra. So, when you see God invest much in a man, do not go complaining, it is your faith now that'll determine how much God will invest in you.

If your faith now is weak, God will invest little in you. Still, you must build a heightened level of trust because, God wouldn't want to invest in a shaky foundation, you must build faith through the word. Man is given faith as a gift from God but, you must cultivate it through the word for you to be trusted as a functionary of high value. No that faith isn't built only on the word, if men can't trust you with earthy things, it's a reflection also, that God won't be able to commit eternity in your hands

Don't ever joke with processing, as the Potter takes his time to make the pot, so also God's does to a man. Your faith to believe God even in your phase of repentance, with it, God will see through into your future to know how much the quality and texture of your foundation will bear the weight of His kingdom building. Man is mortal and man changes, even if God Has planned already still, man changes. This is why God uses our faith also as a means to determine if our future will be thwarted so easily and so, He does everything to prevent it.

Faith here, is like a time machine used only by God, not even the devil. That's why the devil can plan to bring a man down, just when he thinks he's won, God who has seen the end even before the beginning and has reconstructed and determine the future of such a man, will use what the devil orchestrated to propel him even further. And then, the devil begins to wonder, " I thought I had this one." It's not grace, it is your faith now that determined it.

Your faith must rest more on spiritual needs, spiritual demands, the demand of God for His Kingdom. You're not the only one who has demands God has, and He's relying on you, in fact He created and sent you to the earth realm specifically to meet His demand for His kingdom. Even though by faith you asked God for a job, a certificate and God did provide, when you begin your journey deeper in God as a Kingdom functionary, a new phase of faith will be unveiled, " a faith that takes to gain," that certificate which you've gotten through " a faith that gives " will be demanded of you by God as a sacrifice.

When you're filled with the holy ghost and registered a functionary of God's kingdom, then you'll know that all you've been attaining and living for are vanity, you'll realize your faith processing to get physical bread was not for your pleasure, they're just merely resources generated to be burnt as sacrifice to harness a true resource, the resource of life for the building of God's kingdom. You've been walking in a faith that receives, but when you've been filled and ushered into God's Kingdom you'll walk in a faith that demands your life, all that you've been given will be taken or use against you to build you into a refined stone fit for God's kingdom.

There is a faith that demands of your earthly reward in exchange for rewards found only in reality (eternity,) a place in God's kingdom, it is what we're called for.

Being guided by the holy spirit, the holy spirit cares of nothing else in outlives more than fulfilling the will of God to chisel out a fine stone, a man fit for the kingdom. And to make such a fine stone in Zion, the man (stone) must be burnt, purged, chiseled and refined by fire where the flesh is casted in to add as enriched mineral for better refinement of such precious stone. The more a man dies to himself and the world, the more he becomes chiseled and refined, he becomes a living sacrifice, generating life unto God as a resource for His kingdom building. It takes a new dimension of faith for a man to die to himself to gain life.

A time will certainly come to be, when that certificate You've died and prayed to get will be demanded of you for sacrifice. If you fail to sacrifice, you'll not be counted worthy amongst high ranking functionaries in God's kingdom, God won't invest much in you because, you've failed the test of faith.

Just as Abraham attempted sacrificing Isaac, his only son, the only promise for him being a father of nations even at his old age, so also you'll not only attempt but sacrifice your Isaac. That is; that which is dearest to you, your ambitions as a man, the greatest flesh to be casted into the fire.

However, you must be led by the holy spirit when the time graph set by God is right. As you Journey deeper in Intimacy with God, it'll be demanded of you, you must cast it into the fire, else, you'll consider yourself disqualified. When you cast your ambitions into the fire, you'll be immediately ranked higher and more relevant in God's kingdom, much will be entrusted to you because, your faith has caught the jealousy of God.

When you've been given the Kingdom, the veil caused by the spirit of the world is taken off and you begin to see this earth realm as a lie, every second of your life you'll invest as a sacrifice unto God. You'll die to everything pertaining to the flesh and the world, you'll die to yourself to dwell in the presence, in the word, in prayers, yielding your all to the holy ghost to become a high ranking entity in God's kingdom. You live for the kingdom, storing up treasure in heaven, not on earth, every worker gets his wage so, also as you live as a slave of sacrifice in due time when all is said and done you'll be rewarded greatly in accordance to your sacrifice.

Your life originally, will not be to store up physical treasures, rather, it'll be to advance the kingdom, " what will you have me do, Lord?" In the end, it all comes with rewards. However, we look not after the reward now but how much we can sacrifice to be of use. How much you yield and sacrifice will determine your placing and ranking in God's kingdom.

Where your heart is, there your treasure will be, if your heart as a child of God is fixated on the earth realm, blessings, healing, they're all good, but they're all rewards that'll perish along with the flesh on earth. Whereas, if your life is for the kingdom, your life will be lived for the kingdom and you'll get your reward stored over there for all eternity.

We must all awaken, it's all about a Kingdom, not the earth realm or salvation, it's more than salvation. The blessing, healings you receive is not a show, it's an expression of Jesus and His life in you, unto the world and also to advance His kingdom. If you're weak for instance, you can't spend much time in God's presence, in the word this is when his healing dimension is activated. You must begin to invest in the kingdom by faith, by laying all aside to die for the kingdom.

A man of the kingdom must have faith to die for the kingdom, he'll die to all pertaining to him in order for his life to become a better sacrifice used for the kingdom. The kingdom is built on the foundation of sacrifice, it is this sacrifice of men that birth life as resources to be used for the kingdom, in other words; God can't establish His Kingdom without men, if men refuse to yield to His government, giving Him no authorization to function in and through us by the holy spirit to sacrifice and birth life for the kingdom, there'll be no government, of course there'll, but it'll only compromise of God, Jesus and the holy spirit.

We are created and called to become functionaries, we are created for a government, not even the angels were entitled this, except those who are both in the image and likeness of God, for we are like God, hence only God and those bearing His spirit will function in His government, to rule and reign, ranked and placed in different ordination and authority forever and ever.

It is the holy spirit governing the heart of a man that builds him into a better functionary, we are predestined and ordained in the spiritual, but we aren't aware of it, until we are filled with the holy ghost. When we yield to government of the holy spirit, He draws from the God to guide, to build and enable us walk in our ordination as functionaries of the Kingdom.

However, being restored to function fully as God's kingdom functionary, is by faith, you must have a solid foundation of faith to carry on, because it is a new path, a path of sacrifice, your faith process must have been right to birth a solid foundation, never to falter or faint in order to move onward.

Many can't thread this path, because their faith processing has been faulty right from their salvation processing. You must first have faith in God, in good and in bad, not minding if He'll provide or not, but rather believing and knowing He's working out the answer for the future He has prepared for you to walk in your ordination.

A true believer lives according to God's will, you never know if God had given you that job on time you might wind up far away from Him, losing your place in His kingdom. Some of you, if God had given you that money, that spouse, something else might have happened. You won't see what He's doing until you've begun to see the result, then you'll say, "Lord, be glorified."

Your primary faith processing to believe God both in good and in bad constantly, will stand as a solid foundation to secure you in a life of sacrifice.

The holy spirit is the guide for men for the establishment of God's Kingdom, whereas, God is the orchestrator through Jesus. It is the holy spirit who draws from God, revelations from heaven unto men, concerning the times, the kingdom and his ordination. These revelations quicken a man to understand the times and seasons set by God for him to make the rightful sacrifices for God's kingdom. Without revelation, there is no solid faith and without solid faith, no sacrifice.

All sacrifices are birthed from faith and all faith, from revelations. If you've not journeyed deeper in intimacy in God to be given tangible information through revelations, you'll lack faith to make sacrifices. That's why you see those with zeal but, no sacrifice, because of doubt arising from lack of tangible information from God, because they didn't dwell in the presence through prayers to walk with God always.

The reason the zealous sacrifices much, is because he has journeyed deeper in intimacy with God through ceaseless prayers by faith to hear the voice of God, and to access revelations of tangible credentials of the times, seasons and God's dealing with him and with men to become a better functionary in God's kingdom. This makes the man to sacrifice more.

For instance; if two men are given revelations by God, same meaning but different visions, the one unto whom much is revealed will have faith to sacrifice much. We must work on our intimacy through prayers, so we'll be able to access classified credentials from heaven to enable us apply faith to make sacrifices. Many have been given revelations of the times or God's dealings concerning them, however, because of lack of clarity due to less prayers, or due to lack of faith processing, they could not sacrifice and let go for the kingdom. Intimacy, revelation, faith and sacrifice, you must work on these to become a high ranking Kingdom functionary to maximize fully your ordination.

As you grow deeper, your faith processing grows also. The rate at which you grow will determine your faith and the only way we can build faith is through the word of God, we must devour the word.

It is how much God's substance word dominates your heart, you'll walk in faith. How much life you harness through the word will have influence in your faith level. We must never neglect the word, no matter how busy our schedule is, even for the Kingdom, because if you advance faster than your foundation (faith,) you'll run faster surely, but crash like a racing car that lost it's tire.

We need faith, it is faith that keeps us advancing more as functionaries, it is by faith we're able to wait on the Lord. If your faith level is low and you've being called, but not sent, you'll venture on your own, instead of waiting for the Lord's command, it'll bring you to a destructive end. It is through faith cultivated from the word of God, dominating us we're given the ability to know and discern the mind and move of God, to will and to do for His kingdom.

In the kingdom, faith demands and also requires your ability to die trusting God. Faith is processing, and until we leave the earth realm, well continue walking in it, growing from faith to faith for the kingdom.

Many lack faith because they lacked the word, if you're lacking in faith you're lacking in the word, God back to where you've fallen.

The Mystery Of Repentance

Every word heard or received to heart is an infilling that'll usher us into salvation or to manifest the glory of God.

However, the question lies; what have you done with the jar of water (God's word) you've received? Did you break the jar or let it overflow?

The revelation of salvation unto man is not a mystery, because we war to attain it. Whereas, that of repentance is, because, it is by grace, it's a mystery left alone to God. While salvation which comes after repentance, is by righteousness to overcome, it is given to those who overcame. However, repentance which is by grace, we didn't war to attain it, rather, we were called. But here lies the mystery; every man has been called and men are being called when their time is due but, how many really do harken to the call? How many will allow their water jar overflow? Because, repentance is triggered by the infilling of the word in our heart (jar).

Our heart in this context; is like an empty water jar. Every word of God you hear, fills the heart with life because, it is indeed God's water of life and when that water jar (heart) is filled to overflow with the water of life, it births repentance. But, here lies the mystery; three men can have their jar filled to the brim and at the Kairos time that is; the decisive moment of overflow to bring them all to repentance, one will let his jar overflow, another will empty his jar half way while the other will empty his jar completely that is; all God's word in him, he'll contaminate and tip it all over.

Man himself is the problem, not God. This is how repentance begins, the rest is a mystery because, of the man. God's word is life and such life is conveyed and transmitted through God's vessels to birth life in the hearts of men to trigger faith which will usher them to accept Jesus as Lord. The gospel is life packed and sealed in words to be conveyed to the hearts of men. If you're a proclaimer of the gospel you should take note of this.

God's word is life and it is His life we convey into the hearts of men to birth life in them. It is the degree of life we impart through the gospel that breaks the cord of death in a man bringing him to walk with Jesus, the source of life. The words you communicate are merely transport mediums to convey God's life and we can only give what we have.

If you've not died enough to yourself and dwell in the presence to harness much life through God's word, you can't really impart much life that'll destroy the energy of death caused by sin in a man. This is why you preach the gospel and at times, some do repent while others don't, it's not that they can't be saved, of course man remains the problem because, he can will himself not to accept, but still, it's because, the energy level of God's life in you is not enough to destroy the energy of death in such a man.

The extent to which God's life dominates us will determine the quality of God's life we bear. This is what we convey to the hearts of men for the holy spirit will act upon to bring about repentance.

If two vessels of God are to give the gospel to a man, if the first proclaimer has a low level of life in him, that energy of life communicated or that water of life in him won't be able to fill the jar of that man to overflow, bringing him to accepting Jesus but. If the other's quantity of life is about the volume of a tank and the heart of the unbeliever, that is; his jar's volume is lower than the proclaimer's whose life worth can fill a tank. When he imparts life to the unbeliever, he'll fill it to overflow.

Whereas, the first will do the job halfway and God will send His word through another medium to fill the heart of the unbeliever because, the quantity of life first filled in that unbeliever was not enough to fill his heart to overflow with life which will then triggers repentance. God then, will use the other medium to complete the job.

We should work on our relationship to birth more life for the kingdom, it is how much we die to ourselves we'll birth life which God will use to fill the hearts of men to bring about repentance. It's not all about speaking the word, it's about how much we die to ourselves to harness life through God's word to be filled with the holy ghost, because, we must sanctify our hearts that men too shall be sanctified. It is the life cultivated in us, the holy spirit will use to trigger an Impartation of life in the hearts of men to enable walk with Jesus as we do. The life of God cultivated in us and transferred men is the same life they'll live, don't corrupt it.

This is why every word heard, should be treasured because, although you might have not yet received Jesus fully, but there is an infilling, if you contaminate that water with sin perpetually or if you tip it over then, your life is on the line, your chance for repentance will become more dire.

Now here's the mystery of repentance in the case of three men. Three men are to have their jar filled with the water of life. All three, as they lived their life, heard the word, whether consciously or unconsciously. The time of their filling came, the jars of all there were filled with water of life, left to overflow, if only the jar can overflow then they'll have the heart of genuine repentance.

However, when the time of filling came, the first allowed his jar to overflow with life, the second tipped over his jar and emptied it halfway, while the last, emptied his completely. The remaining two came to the point to genuinely accept Jesus as Lord but, the problem was their heart. I don't know why but, they decided to remain in death (sin) a little while longer for their own reasons. The one whom tipped his jar of water half way still has a better chance of repentance because, his heart was partly for Jesus, he still has the word in him waiting to be filled again, maybe he was just a little distracted.

However, for the last who emptied his water jar completely, when next the season of filling comes for repentance, when the one with the half jar will accept Jesus as Lord in time if he chooses to let his jar over flow, it'll take time for the last unbeliever or he might no longer have the grace, his grace might have elapsed because, he joked with it not knowing he has used it all up. While others will get a filling, he'll be passed by and lose his life at the end. Those who emptied their jar completely are those who have deliberately chosen to walk in darkness, they have no more any remorse because, death has taken a toll on them.

So, for those of you still in sin, press on in the word, you might not notice it but, there's an infilling and when the time comes, you'll suddenly find yourself free from sin, and you'd begin to wonder " when?" It was because, there was a constant infilling. Don't wait for the gospel to get to you again fill yourself with the word.

This word should call us to order, to be conscious always of the state of our heart. We should take care for our heart else, God might get tired of filling our jars. When you receive the word, don't joke with it, treasure it. Even if you're still dozed with sin, a time of filling will come which will birth restoration, ushering you into salvation.

Even as you've known this, I pray you'll tend your heart to be ushered into repentance when your jars has been filled to overflow. Don't pour out your water thinking it's cheap to attain, you might not find it anymore.
