THE OUTPOURING of the SPIRIT

In January 1983, God instructed me to share a very timely message of the outpouring of the Holy Spirit in the former and the latter rain with the Body of Christ. This message concerns the responsibilities that are upon us as the children of God. This is a most critical hour in the history of the Church.

*This is a most critical hour
in the history
of the Church.*

I am going to share with you what the Holy Spirit dealt with me about during an extended period of time in prayer and fasting and fellowship with God.

God revealed to me that He is calling the Body of Christ to rally around the prayer of intercession. He is calling us to call on Him to pour out of His Spirit great and unusual manifestations of His power. God is about to

*God is about to bring forth the
grand finale.*

bring forth the grand finale. It will be the greatest production by

the Spirit of God in the history of the human race as we know it.

Think about it! We are going to have the glorious privilege of not only witnessing the move of God's Spirit in these last days but we are the vessels through which this mighty power will flow!

You and I are privileged to be the generation of the Holy Spirit. God has raised up a people who will know the life and ministry of the Holy Spirit more than any before us. Even the generation who witnessed the ministry of Jesus in the earth did not experience it in the intensity that we will. Jesus said, "The works that I do shall ye do also; and greater works than these shall ye do; because I go unto my Father” (John 14:12). We have a great commission and tremendous responsibility. Now is the time for these greater works.

This is the finest hour to be alive in the history of the human race! More people are exercising faith in Jesus Christ today than ever before! We are blessed above all other generations because of the excellence of God’s Word that we have. We are experiencing revelation knowledge through television, radio, churches everywhere (teaching the full counsel of God’s Word), books, cassette tapes, CDs, videotapes, satellite and Internet around the world. We have the foundation and experience of almost 2,000 years of faith and prayers of the mighty saints of God that have gone before us. We will be held responsible for what we do with the treasure house of equipment that God has given us to communicate the gospel of Jesus Christ.

I believe we are at the end of what began on the day of Pentecost. The Apostle Peter said, “this [Pentecost] is that which was spoken by the prophet Joel.” In the original text, as well as in other translations, it means, “This is the beginning of that.” He was quoting the prophet Joel who said:

And it shall come to pass
afterward, that I will pour out my spirit upon all flesh;
and your sons and your
daughters shall prophesy,
your old men shall dream
dreams, your young men shall see visions: And also upon the servants and upon the handmaids in those days will I pour out my spirit. And I will show wonders in the heavens

and in the earth, blood,
and fire, and pillars of smoke. The sun shall be turned into darkness,
and the moon into blood,
before the great and the terrible day of the Lord come. And it shall come to pass, that whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord shall be delivered: for in mount Zion
and in Jerusalem shall be deliverance, as the Lord hath said, and in the remnant whom the Lord
shall call (Joel 2:28-32).

When the Word says “all flesh”

*When the Word says
God will pour
out His Spirit
on all flesh....*

it means all—
the sinner, the saint, everyone!

Peter quoted
Joel a little differently. I believe he did so by the unction of the Holy Spirit. He said, “*And on my servants and on my handmaidens I will pour out in those days of my Spirit; and they shall prophesy: And I will show wonders in heaven above, and signs in the earth beneath; blood, and fire,

and vapour of smoke*” (Acts 2:18-19). Notice the distinction between all flesh and the servants and handmaidens. The servants and handmaidens are people who have committed themselves totally to God. Their prophesying and God showing signs and wonders are directly connected. “They shall prophesy and I will show....”

Prophesying, in this instance, does not just mean the ministry of the prophet or the gift of prophecy (although they are included). Actually, it is speaking in the spirit, and praying and interceding in the spirit, and acting in the spirit in obedience to God. God said as the servants and handmaidens intercede in the spirit, He will do the signs and the wonders. God is saying He needs you and me! We have our definite part to play in the outpouring of the signs and wonders.

When a person is born again, he does not become a servant of God, he becomes a child of God. For a son to become a servant, he must make a choice, “I will serve God.” Too many people have accepted Jesus as Savior and have never made Him Lord.

I have made this decision. I want to be involved in what God is doing in this hour! I have become His bondslave, available to do His bidding 24 hours a day.

I desire to be used of Him and to serve Him in any way I can.

Those who have become His servants and handmaidens will experience this great outpouring of His Spirit. They say what He says to say. Then He does what they say!

He needs those who won't hold back. He needs those who will cut every cord and burn every bridge behind them that ties them to this natural world. If He calls on them in the middle of the night for prayer, they get up and do it, no matter how

*God needs
those who won't

tired they may be. This is the quality and depth of dedication this kind of relationship with God requires. Those who give themselves totally to His service in this final hour will be God's mouth-piece in the earth, and the vehicles of His Spirit and mighty power.

The signs and wonders God is talking about are not judgment, wrath and destruction! The outpouring of the Spirit is for revival—not destruction! The result is: “And it shall come to pass, that whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord shall be saved” (Acts 2:21). The signs and wonders will influence people to call upon His Name!

In order to be saved, one must be born into the family of God. Jesus said, “Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God” (John 3:3). He was speaking of spiritual rebirth which is the result of the incorruptible seed of the Word of God. For seeds to produce a harvest there must be rain. James 5:7 says, “Behold, the husbandman [Who is the heavenly Father, according to John 15:1] waiteth for the precious fruit of the earth, and hath long patience for it, until he receive the early and latter rain.” The fruit of the earth is the harvest of souls. When the Word of God speaks of natural rain, it can be applied to the outpouring of the Holy Spirit.

*The fruit of

The Former and the Latter Rain

Hosea 6:3 tells us that He will come to us as the rain, as the former and the latter rain unto the earth. The former rain is the power of the Holy Spirit upon the ministries of the old covenant—on the prophet, the king and the priest. The latter rain is the outpouring of the Holy Spirit in the new covenant. As born-again believers, we are all kings and priests. This generation is beginning to receive both the power of the former rain and the latter rain combined. Joel said, “...the former rain, and the latter rain in the first month” (Joel 2:23). That’s a flood of outpouring of spiritual power.

In the natural realm, the former rain is in the fall and the latter rain is in the spring. God told the Israelites the promised land would not have to be watered by treadmill and the sweat of their brow as it was in Egypt. He said their harvest would come by rain and not by their toil.

The time is now to reap the harvest of the souls of the earth into the family of God. In order to do it, God has promised the former and the latter rain of the Spirit. Hallelujah! Whosoever shall call upon the Name of the Lord shall be saved! That is the bottom line. The outpouring of the Holy Spirit is not just to make it easier to get healed or easier to stand in faith. These things are all part of one thing: to bring in the lost.

One of the things that has hindered great moves of the Spirit in the past is taking the wave of God and making a denomination out of it. Selfishness stopped it from being spread to the world. That will not happen this time. You may rest assured that when we begin trying to do that, the Spirit of God will overwhelm us. He will keep going even if He has to raise up someone else or another group to do it!

This planet will not stand any more sin. God is cutting it short. It will be a quick work.

It is happening already. It is beginning to erupt and split at the seams because of the sin that is running rampant. The earth has erupted at least twice with water, once with fire at Sodom and Gomorrah and it is about to erupt again. Sin causes death and everything in the natural realm wants to LIVE. Romans 8:22 says that all of creation groans for the manifestation of the sons of God.

Revival stops sin and cuts it off! We are going to see millions upon millions, yes, billions born

*Revival stops
sin and cuts
it off!*

again. The Word of God says whole nations will sweep into the kingdom of God in these last days. Heaven is already reverberating 24 hours a day with the prayers of God's people crying out for the outpouring of His Spirit.

We have had the idea that God pours His Spirit down from heaven and that it falls on all flesh from above. This image comes from the comparison of the out-pouring to rain and to gravity. We have formed a picture in our minds of God having a big pitcher in heaven and His pouring down on us. We have even said, “Send the power down, Lord.” But the power is already down. The Spirit of God came on the day of Pentecost. He is not pouring down—He’s pouring out. There is no gravity in the spirit realm. He can pour in any direction.

The Source of This Outpouring

The Spirit of God is not in heaven, He is here in the earth. He is in all of us! Jesus said, “...whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst; but the water that I shall give him shall be in him a well of water springing up into everlasting life” (John 4:14).

John 7:38 says, “He that believeth on me, as the scripture hath said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water.” The outpouring of the Spirit is a flow of the rivers of living water coming from the believer. That is the source of all the signs and wonders and miracles! All of these signs and wonders are in the Holy Spirit and He is in us. Prayer, then, is going to play the major role in this outpouring.

Prayer, based on the Word, is the doorway into the mightiest release of power known to man.

It brings the presence of God to and upon men in any part of the world. That power operates as believers pray in faith, allowing those rivers of living water to gush toward the dry and thirsty. The torrential outpouring of the Spirit will cause life to spring forth in those who receive the seed of God's Word and they will be born again. This is the whole reason and purpose for this wave of the Holy Spirit in our day. Prayer causes the spiritual new birth and that's what God is after.

God has been teaching His people to walk by faith and not by sight. He has been training us to use our faith in receiving healing, prosperity and victory in our personal lives—and we will continue to do that—but now the time has come to direct our faith primarily toward this great outpouring of revival and harvesting of souls like never before. It's time for a tidal wave of God's power to flood the entire earth.

Rivers of Living Water Overflowing Their Banks

How will this flood come? Zechariah 10:1 says, “Ask ye of the Lord rain in the time of the latter rain; so the Lord shall make bright clouds [lightnings], and give them showers [torrents] of rain, to every one grass in the field.” We are in the latter rain. It is harvest time! He said “ask”, didn’t He?

Intercessory prayer will cause the rain of God’s Spirit. It will harvest the human race into the family of God. It is happening right now all over this world. God is bringing the Body of Christ into unity. Rivers of living water—flowing from believers joining together—will become a flood of spiritual power in the earth. This flood constitutes the power of the former rain and the latter rain, plus the intensity of our generation at the closing of this age!

Some years ago, I heard Oral Roberts say, “Prepare yourself. There's a flood coming—not a trickle, not a stream, not a river, but a flood.” That statement,

not a trickle, not a stream,
not a river, but a flood”*

—Oral Roberts

along with something one of my associates at the time

said, has changed my comprehension of a very important scripture: “So shall they fear the name of the Lord from the west, and his glory from the rising of the sun.

When the enemy shall come in like a flood, the Spirit of the Lord shall lift up a standard against him” (Isaiah 59:19). A trickle, a stream, a river...each of these is containable, but a flood cannot be contained. The water overflows its banks. This verse looks like Satan comes in like a flood. He can't do that. He has been contained. He has been stopped by Jesus.

At the discretion of the translators, they have placed a comma after the word "flood." We have just as much privilege, by revelation from the Holy Spirit, to move that comma because there is no punctuation in the original Hebrew. We cannot do that arbitrarily, but if the Word confirms it out of the mouth of two or three witnesses, then we have the right. Let's back up to verse 16 and find out who is coming in like a flood. "And he [God] saw that there was no... intercessor: therefore his arm brought salvation unto him; and his righteousness, it sustained him. For he put on righteousness as a breastplate, and an helmet of salvation upon his head; and he put on the garments of vengeance for clothing, and was clad with zeal as a cloak" (Isaiah 59:16-17). Can you see what this scripture is saying? God is the One Who is moving in. Not the devil! Jesus came as an intercessor, with the whole armor of God. This is the same armor described for the believer in Ephesians 6. Verse 19 should read: When the enemy shall come in, LIKE A FLOOD the Lord shall raise up a standard against him! Look at this scripture in The Amplified Bible. “So [as the result of the Messiah’s intervention] they shall [reverently] fear the name of the Lord from the west, and His glory from the rising of the sun. When the enemy shall come in like a flood, the Spirit of the Lord will lift up a standard against him and put him to flight—for He will come like a rushing stream which the breath of the Lord drives.”

The breath of the Lord is the wind of God which is His Spirit. The wind of God will drive the flood until the enemy has to run in front of it to keep from being crushed!

God showed me that now is not the time for Christians to be “sitting on the fence” with one foot in the devil’s territory and the other foot in God’s. The flood of God’s Spirit will wash that fence away. If you are on the fence, you will get washed right along with it. You cannot stand in front of a flood to resist it. It will crush you. But you can ride the crest of that flood and it will carry you to high ground. That is where this move of God is headed.

The Role of Intercession

Let's go back to our foundational scripture in Joel 2. Before the Sprit of God is poured out upon all flesh, verse 12 says, "Turn ye even to me with all your heart, and with fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning." Mourning is an old covenant picture which describes the prophets taking the sin of a whole nation on their shoulders. They interceded and cried out to God until it was lifted.

Jesus said, “Blessed are they who mourn for they shall be comforted.” Who is the comforter? The Holy Spirit. What is the comfort? It is the relief that an intercessor knows when he has prayed through the barriers in the lives of those for whom he is interceding. In past generations, we have misinterpreted “praying through.” We thought that was when we finally got God’s attention. That couldn’t be true. In the Name of Jesus we’ve always had His ear. It was the hindrances in the lives of others that had to be prayed through! We use our armor to push back the forces of darkness surrounding them.

An intercessor goes before God and reaches out for His mercy and compassion on the sinner, on the sick, on this down-cast world. He never demands justice. That is vengeance. He cries for mercy—a true intercessor sticks with it until he has the assurance inside, in his spirit, that the hindrance is broken. He prays through every harassment of Satan and every area of bondage. He will fast if necessary, according to Isaiah 58, to break every enslaving yoke.

Certain things will never happen in this earth if we do not pray. Things which happen in this natural realm must first be given birth in the spiritual realm through prayer. Joel 2:15-17 tells

*Everyone must be involved
in prayer.*

us that everyone must be involved in prayer. The result is verse 28:

God will pour out of His Spirit upon all flesh. This is a manifestation in the natural.

That is what happened on the day of Pentecost. The Bible says that after Jesus ascended into heaven, the disciples were in Jerusalem awaiting the Holy Spirit. He instructed them and they continued daily in prayer.

The result of their obedience was the Holy Spirit's coming to them as He was promised.

Not even the birth of Jesus came without prayer. God had spoken of the Messiah in Genesis 3:15. His coming was already promised. The day this beautiful little baby was brought into the temple on the eighth day to be circumcised, a man named Simeon was there praying. He had been praying until the Spirit of God spoke to him and promised that he would not die until he saw the Redeemer. He really had to have been quite a prayer warrior to receive a promise like that! He stepped into the middle of that holy ceremony and took Jesus into his arms and said, "I have seen the Messiah, now I am ready to die!" He knew Who that child was. God revealed it to him in prayer.

The prophetess Anna was also in the temple praying day and night, crying out to God for the Redeemer. When she saw Him, she recognized Him. An intercessor knows God and His works better than anyone on earth. When they see a manifestation in the natural, they know it is what they have already seen in the spirit, in prayer and intercession. The birth of Jesus was promised, but the manifestation came through prayer and intercession.

God has told us that He would give the manifestation of His Spirit in combination with the former and the latter rain. But the only way it is going to come is through the prayers of the saints.

How Does Intercession Work?

All through Isaiah 58, the Word of God is speaking of the fast that God has chosen. This fast is to loose the bonds of wickedness, to undo heavy burdens, to let the oppressed go free and to break every yoke. You may ask, “Isn’t that intercession?” We said that a true intercessor prays through every hindrance in the life of another until the Spirit of God can manifest Himself to him. This is a fast of intercession. We enter into the spirit realm and tap into the power source which will set others free of the devil’s deception and oppression.

Verse 8 says, “...and thy righteousness shall go before thee....”

Righteousness is a breastplate that is part of the armor of God for the intercessor (Ephesians 6:11-18).

Then verse 8 goes on to say,
“...the glory of the Lord shall be thy rearward,” or rear guard.

One translation says, the glory of the Lord shall encamp round about you. The glory of the Lord is the presence of God.

Hallelujah! Can
 you see the connection between the manifestation of God and intercession?

God is ready to do this, but He needs us! We have the armor.

We have been given the authority and the assignment to cast out the devil!

The Holy Spirit is living

God is ready to do this, but He needs us!

in us. Verse 11 says, “...the Lord shall guide thee continually, and satisfy thy soul in drought, and make fat [strong] thy bones: and thou shalt be like a watered garden, and like a spring of water, whose waters fail not.” The intercessor keeps his own well pumping all the time. There may be spiritual drought in the land but he is drawing from his own well. He is living by faith with signs and wonders in his life continually.

Verse 12 says the intercessor will build old waste places. He tears down the timber of lives wasted on drugs, alcohol and sin and rebuilds them into temples of the living God! The intercessor shall raise up the foundations of many generations. He will pull out the old foundations of many broken homes, rebellious children, divorce, etc., and rebuild them on the foundation of Jesus Christ. God says, “...and thou shalt be called, The repairer of the breach, The restorer of the paths to dwell in.” Intercession helps to bring forth the spiritual new birth in others. The intercessor helps restore the way for men to walk with God. Jesus said, “I am the way and the truth and the life” (John 14:6).

Right now, the Spirit of God is calling on the Body of Christ to give themselves totally in service to Him. We are being called to pray. God told me that when His servants and handmaidens yield to Him as His voices, He would pour out of His Spirit upon all flesh like never before. He said, "You will see it when the cloud of glory will be so thick that the sun will not shine through it. The moon will look blood red because My cloud will be so thick. The sun and the moon will not shine through it." It is the greatest outpouring of the Holy Spirit in the history of the human race.

The Lord has said for us to admonish the Body of Christ to be prepared for criticism. The world will not criticize this move as much as in the past. They have been looking for signs and wonders all along. It will be the religious fools. It will be the same kind who crucified Jesus. They didn't know God. They could not recognize Jesus as the Messiah. Your theology may be one and mine may be another but we can agree that it is time for the rain. We, as the unified Body, must cry out to God for this mighty outpouring.

The Lord then said we must rid ourselves of every ounce of sin and selfishness. My spirit is stirred even now when I remember it. I can still hear His voice. For He said, “The Ananias and Sapphira incident will be reenacted all over the world.” God’s heart is grieved because He said, “I’m not

We cannot resist this flood! We must flow with it.

going to kill them. But if someone gets out in the middle of the road and gets run over, then they have just had it.” We cannot resist this flood! We must flow with it and respond to the Holy Spirit. We must purge ourselves of sin, walk in love and not return evil for evil. We must get the sin out of the camp.

The result of all of this thrills my heart! The Spirit of God has been manifest in the earth as fire—the day of Pentecost.

Habakkuk said the hiding place of God's power was in the lightning-like flashes that came out of His hands. He has been manifest as the cloud, as wind and as rain. God said, "I have never been manifest as all four of those phenomena at one time in one place. That is what I am going to do in these last days!"

What is rain and cloud and wind and fire? It is a storm! A flood of spiritual power is coming! God is about to manifest Himself as a cyclone of sweeping spiritual power!

Let's join together as the Body, as God's army of believers. Let's intercede for the outpouring of the Spirit of God upon all flesh as never before. God will hear

*God will hear our prayers and manifest Himself
among us in great
and mighty ways.*

our prayers
and manifest Himself among us in great and mighty ways.

We can't even imagine what is about to happen.

I am looking forward to outstanding manifestations of the Holy Spirit. Make this great outpouring of God's Spirit first priority in your prayer life. It will cause you to break through into the realm of power of the former and the latter rain. Glory be to God!

My Prayer of Intercession

Intercession is the key to this outpouring of the Holy Spirit. God needs your cooperation in order to bring His will to pass in the lives of others. Commit yourself to join with the Body of Christ to intercede and give God the opportunity to pour His Spirit upon all flesh.

“Father, in Jesus’ Name, I pray for the outpouring of Your Spirit upon all flesh. I realize that as I stand in the gap and pray, You will cause the former and the latter rain to come upon all men.

“I am so grateful to be alive at this tremendous time of history in the Body of Christ and I am willing to do my part to see that You have every liberty through my prayers. Show Yourself strong in behalf of Your people and establish Your Word in the earth.

“Father, I know that in order for You to move effectively by Your Spirit among men, You need yielded vessels, willing to give of themselves and their time to prayer.

“I want You to Know that I am willing, Father. I yield myself to You. Use me to birth new citizens into Your kingdom, to bring healing to the sick, to cause finances to come to those in need and to bring Your compassionate love to the brokenhearted. I will stand in the gap. I will make up the hedge, so men, women and children will have the opportunity to come to the knowledge of the Truth. They will recover themselves out of the snare of the devil and walk in the light of Your Word, discovering daily the riches of the glory of their inheritance in the saints.

“Father, thank You for revealing to me, in a personal way, the value of prayer and the important part I have in bringing the outpouring of Your mighty Spirit and ultimately the return of our coming King—Jesus our Lord! In Jesus’ Name.

“Amen.”

Even so, Lord come quickly!

Prayer for Salvation and Baptism in the Holy Spirit

Heavenly Father, I come to You in the Name of Jesus. Your Word says, "Whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord shall be saved" (Acts 2:21). I am calling on You. I pray and ask Jesus to come into my heart and be Lord over my life according to Romans 10:9-10. "If thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation." I do that now. I confess that Jesus is Lord, and I believe in my heart that God raised Him from the dead.

I am now reborn! I am a Christian—a child of Almighty God! I am saved! You also said in Your Word, “If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children: HOW MUCH MORE shall your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to them that ask him?” (Luke 11:13). I’m also asking You to fill me with the Holy Spirit. Holy Spirit, rise up within me as I praise God. I fully expect to speak with other tongues as You give me the utterance (Acts 2:4). In Jesus’ Name. Amen!

Begin to praise God for filling you with the Holy Spirit. Speak those words and syllables you receive—not in your own language, but the language given to you by the Holy Spirit. You have to use your own voice. God will not force you to speak. Don’t be concerned with how it sounds. It is a heavenly language!

Continue with the blessing God has given you and pray in the spirit every day.

You are a born-again, Spirit-filled believer. You'll never be the same!

Find a good Word of God preaching church, and become a part of a church family who will love and care for you as you love and care for them.

We need to be connected to each other. It increases our strength in God. It's God's plan for us.
